Unconfirmed Report Says Pohang Has Fallen To Reds

229th Artillery Inducted Into U.S. Service

Advance Detail Leaves For Camp On September 7

The 229th Field Artillery Battalion is now a part of the Army of the United States.

Today, by order of President Harry Truman, the 28th Division, the Pennsylvania National Guard became a unit of the United States forces and the 229th is a part of the 28th Division.

No Ceremony
No ceremony attended the transferring of the 229th into Federal service. When the men of the battalion enlisted they took the oath as a member of the National Guard of Pennsylvania and of the United States of America. Hence, all that was necessary to Federalize the Guard was a presidential order.

From now until the 229th leaves for Camp Atterbury on September 7 under the command of Captain Roy W. Coffman, Of the 25, 13 will be New Castle men.

Not Quite At Strength
The 229th is not quite up to war strength yet. When the battalion returned from Indianapolis Gap a recruiting campaign was staged for 100 men. About 85 were recruited but some of the men who were in the battalion were discharged for physical reasons. Today there is yet needed about 30 men to bring the battalion to strength.

No more enlistments can be received at the armory. Any man now wishing to serve with the 229th can ask for such assignment by the United States Army recruiting officer but the enlistment must go through the Army recruiting office.

PA NEWS OBSERVES
Birds seem to be congregating in flocks around the outskirts of the city, apparently scheduling the mass departure for the south as fall approaches.

Labor Day to a lot of persons around the city yesterday was just that. Many men were noted at work pushing a lawn mower over their premises during the day.

No new detours are listed in the local area according to the current detour bulletin, but traffic is being maintained on a construction project between Harrisburg and Slippery Rock, where the road is being widened and resurfaced. This construction hazard is scheduled for completion this week.

No traffic fatalities occurred in Lawrence county over the weekend, Coroner Charles E. Allen reported, the district again escaping without any serious accidents, in spite of the heavy traffic of the holiday period.

Young peoples groups from district churches were enjoying themselves over the week end with an old fashioned hay ride. Horses were missing from the scene with a "mechanical horse" being the means of locomotion for the happy throng which rode on two wagons.

One of the Pa News boys observed an odd incident at Mercer and East Washington street about 10 p. m. Monday. One resident was tightly bound up in a winter overcoat yet atop his head rested

WINNER OF ORANGE CRATE DERBY

Panella Wins Orange Crate Derby For Second Time

Charles Panella, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Panella, 202 Edison avenue, won the fifth annual Optimist Orange Crate Derby Monday morning on Taylor street hill by defeating John Bockius, R. D. 1, in the final heat.

It was the second straight year that Panella has won the derby championship.

A crowd of several thousand persons lined Taylor street from the top of the hill all the way to the bend at the bottom to see the home-made cars in action.

No serious accidents occurred, though several of the boys gave the spectators thrills by going into spins when they applied the brakes too rapidly after crossing the finish line.

Car No. 16, driven by George Giacomakis, 1311 Cunningham avenue, went into a spin about ten feet from the finish line and ended up on the curb about 20 feet past the line.

Closest Race
Closest race of the day was between Eddie Kay, 301 Hillcrest av.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the fifth day of September, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty, has been duly set aside to honor those men of the 229th field artillery of the National Guard and the 384th chemical company of the Army Reserve, who will shortly thereafter, enter the United States Army on active duty.

WHEREAS, we, the citizens of New Castle and Lawrence county, will this day duly honor these men who are leaving home and board to protect our rights and heritages.

WHEREAS, we, the people of New Castle and Lawrence county, will always remember these men and the sacrifices they have made for us, we hereby do wish to honor them so that they will always remember us.

THEREFORE, in token whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and official seal this the 5th day of September, 1950.

Very truly yours,
JOHN F. HAVEN, Mayor

Parochial Schools Start Term Today

This morning, parochial schools of Lawrence county opened their doors again—ready to start the fall semester of the school term. The local Catholic schools are in the Pittsburgh diocese.

Approximately 900 pupils returned to their desks again and prepared to start studies for another nine months. Many new pupils began in the first grades of the parochial schools and many have been promoted to higher grades which necessitated changing to Senior High schools.

Ready To Fete Service Men This Evening

This evening, New Castle will honor her 229th field artillery of the National Guard and the 384th chemical company of the Organized Reserve Corps. The 229th part of the famed "Bloody Bucket" division of World War II, goes into active Federal service today.

These two groups of men, who are going into active military service, will dance their cares away at the beautiful Rainbow Terrace in Cascade park this evening. They will hear Judge W. Walter Abraham, a veteran of World War I, wish them a speedy return to their city and homes.

They will be feted in great style. The people of New Castle, through their civic and service clubs, have opened their hearts and purse strings to the men who are leaving to protect our country and the cause of right.

Besides dancing to a 10-piece band and hearing a musical program, they will have food, refreshments and prizes galore.

City and county officials have had their hand in seeing that the men enjoy this evening's gala affair. The New Castle Veterans Council which created the formative plans and did the leg work of preparing for this occasion

Woman Killed, Several Hurt In Auto Crash

Miss Ruth Thomas, 1605 East street, Pittsburgh, was fatally hurt in a head-on collision of two autos on the Perry highway, three miles south of Portersville, about 9 a. m. Sunday.

She was a passenger in the auto operated by Paul Coco, 28, of 5133 Woodworth street, East End, Pittsburgh, which was in a crash with a car operated by Richard Lendhurst, 23, of Cleveland.

Both drivers and passengers in the Lendhurst car were taken to the Ellwood City hospital badly hurt.

The injured: Richard Lendhurst, 23, William Lendhurst, 51, and Frank Lendhurst, 4, all of 1612 East 47th street, Cleveland.

Paul Coco, East End, Pittsburgh. Their injuries were not stated by hospital attaches.

In 1949 a record-breaking 550 deaths were recorded.

One auto accident at Panhandle, Tex., killed five persons and another at Hopkinsville, Ky., took the lives of four.

A commercial plane crash at Utica, N. Y., that killed 13, and Saturday's excursion train crash near Milwaukee, Wis., in which nine perished, were the worst accidents of the three-day holiday.

An International News Service survey showed 331 persons have been killed in traffic accidents since 6 p. m. Friday. The National Safety Council predicted 435 would die between that time and midnight Monday.

Thirty-nine persons drowned and 85 others died in miscellaneous accidents.

LOCALE OF FIGHTING IN KOREA

Fierce Allied counterattacks near Angang blunted major Red drive west of Pohang (1), but Red encirclement of the port city seems likely. Reds drove within 4 miles of Kyongju, from which junction they may strike west. (Broken arrow) to Taegu (2). Taegu is still menaced by three-pronged Red assaults from north, northwest and southwest. Fierce fighting raged 13 miles north of Taegu, around Tabu and on nearby Mt. Kasan. On Nakdong line, while U. S. forces pushed enemy farther back from Yongsan (3), the U. S. 25th Division surrounded a "sizeable" enemy force west of Masan (4) and inflicted very heavy casualties. Inset map: Cross-mark shows location of Korean west coast where Russian bomber was downed by U. S. fighters after attacking UN Naval forces. Russian lieutenant's body was found amid wreckage.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The State Department announced today that a twin-engine bomber "bearing a red star" was shot down off Korea yesterday and the body of a Soviet crew member was recovered after the bomber fired on a United Nations fighter patrol.

Immediate notification was sent to the U. N. Security Council which is expected to take up the matter promptly this afternoon.

There was no indication that the United States was charging the Soviet Union specifically with aggression.

The message to UN Secretary General Trygve Lie and Security Council president Sir Gladwyn Jebb of Britain was simply a concise report of the circumstances.

Grave Incident
Gravity of the incident was emphasized by the speed with which the UN was notified. It was assumed that all delegates would try to

Public Schools Resume Today

Back from the mountains and the lakes, the students and teachers of the New Castle public schools resumed work this morning.

The usual general meeting of teachers in the senior high school was abandoned this year and instead the teachers and principals reported directly to their buildings and got down to work.

Classes were organized, rolls checked and the students dismissed.

Red Forces Push Drive On Taegu On Wide Front

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN

(Far Eastern Director, I. N. S.)

TOKYO, Sept. 6.—(Wednesday)—North Korean Communist forces captured Tabudong, 11 miles north of Taegu, Tuesday night and unconfirmed reports said the important port of Pohang on the east coast also has fallen to the Reds.

The reported fall of Pohang, second only in importance to Pusan as an Allied port of entry, could not immediately be checked because of poor communications.

Taegu is Gravely Threatened
Taegu, cornerstone bastion and supply center for Allied forces, was gravely threatened by Communist thrusts from the east and southwest as well as by the fall of Tabudong on the north.

A front dispatch from the Taegu sector telling of the Red seizure of Tabudong said "our boys are really catching hell up there."

The Red forces were smashing toward Taegu on a 30-mile front in their powerful "last gasp" offensive and a telephoned dispatch said the city is "threatened more directly than ever before."

The important highway center of Changnyong, 22 miles southwest, was entered by Communist units late Tuesday while Red Guerrillas surrounded the city but a front dispatch said it was not clear who held the city.

The walled city of Kasan, 10 miles north of Taegu, was captured in fierce fighting by two Communist battalions which surrounded two American companies.

Striking Toward Taegu
Other Communist forces of undisclosed strength were striking toward Taegu from the north and east through mountain passes in the flaming offensive.

Red forces were exerting heavy northwest of Taegu, but the U. S. First Cavalry was reported to be holding firm there.

Red units cracked the United Nations defense arc at several other points, including Sinnyong, 16 miles northeast of Taegu.

A front dispatch from International News Service War Correspondent Irving Levine received in Tokyo just before midnight Tuesday (10 a. m. EDT), said the Red troops punched a hole in the first South Korean Division's line just north of Sinnyong.

Levine reported that in the northeast sector three Communist

Casualties Of U.S. Forces Now More Than 12,000

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—(INS)—Casualties of U. S. armed forces in the Korean war are estimated at more than 12,000 today on the basis of official releases of the past ten days.

The casualty lists made public by the defense department during this period have averaged approximately 400 per day, with more than half of the total listed as wounded.

One indication of the size of the toll is a disclosure by the military air transport service that it plans to fly 200 pilots of whole blood per day from the continent to the Far East.

The defense department announced last week that, as of August 25, the verified list of American casualties whose nearest relatives have been notified totaled 6,886.

This would be the casualties up to approximately August 10, as slightly more than two weeks is required on the average for verifying casualties at the various command headquarters and for notification of relatives.

Because of this lag, the official casualty list included only a few of the losses which the U. S. Marine Corps suffered in the Chinnu offensive August 11-17.

The casualties in this offensive were given as "moderately heavy."

So wind up the rug on the cotage porch, and pack all the tables away, the summer is done or they claim it is when you get by old Labor Day. Vacations are done and the schools all begin, and autumn and football are due, and this is the day when the summer bows out, though the weather is seventy two. The hikes and the swims and the soft moonlight nights, oh what am I to say just now, the summer was cool but the fall will be warm, at least I am hoping add how.

be prepared with instructions from their governments by the time the council convenes at 3 p. m. (Coincidentally announcement of the shooting down of the red-starred bomber, a captured North Korean major was quoted in a battlefront dispatch as saying "unless Russia gives us air support within the next two days our whole front will collapse." The enemy officer, quoted by INS War Correspondent Frank Conniff, was among a group of prisoners taken on the Nakdong river front.)

Identification papers found on the body of the airman, recovered by a U. N. destroyer, gave the name of Lt. Mishin Tensadii Vasilebiu of the armed forces of the USSR, serial No. 25054.

The U. S., reporting to the United Nations, said Vasilebiu's body was recovered from the wreckage of a twin-engine bomber, marked with the Soviet red star.

Bomber Shot Down

The bomber was shot down after it opened fire on a U. N. fighter patrol off the west coast of Korea, at about the 38th parallel, the boundary between North and South Korea.

State Department spokesman Michael J. McDermott made the announcement early today in releasing a message to U. N. Secretary-General Trygve Lie and Sir Gladwyn Jebb, president of the Security Council.

McDermott did not elaborate nor did he describe the U. S. note as a protest. There was no immediate indication of what action the U. N. might take.

The message said that a twin-engine bomber bearing a red star passed over a U. N. naval forces screening ship near the 38th parallel and continued "in a hostile manner" toward the center of the formation.

The bomber, it added, opened fire on a U. N. fighter patrol which promptly shot it down.

The incident was the first confirmed report that Russian personnel are actively supporting Communist forces in North Korea.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday morning at nine o'clock in the Noga funeral home, with a requiem mass to follow at 9:30 o'clock in the SS. Philip and James church, Rev. Fr. V. V. Stanekowski in charge. Burial will be in the parish cemetery. The body is at the Noga funeral home, South Mill at Reynolds street, where the family will meet friends Wednesday and Thursday, two to five and seven to 10 o'clock. Friends may call any time.

Mrs. Mary Fiorelli

Mrs. Mary Fiorelli, aged 75 years, of 1408 Croton avenue, died at her residence this morning following a lingering illness.

Mrs. Fiorelli was born in Italy, August 22, 1875, daughter of Lorenzo and Frances Vivacco Rometa. She lived here for 45 years and was a member of St. Vitus church. Her husband, Vincenzo, preceded her in death 11 1/2 years ago.

Surviving are her children: Mrs. Raffaella Cimini; Ralph, Mrs. Teresa Antonaucci, of Ellwood City; Mrs. Helen Lucas, Mrs. Lucy Maletta of Ellwood City; Lawrence, Mrs. Anna Calabro, of Aliquippa; and Rose. She leaves 16 grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren.

The body will be removed from the DeCarbo funeral home to the residence late this afternoon, where friends may call anytime after 7 o'clock this evening. Funeral arrangements are to be announced.

McCreary funeral

Funeral services for Stewart C. McCreary, aged 86 years, of 249 Maple street, New Wilmington, were conducted Monday at 2 p. m. from the Sharp funeral home, Rev. Robert P. McDonald in charge. Mr. McCreary died on September 1.

He was born in East Brook, Pa., December 13, 1863, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McCreary. He operated a hotel in New Wilmington until 1921, when he moved to Lisbon, O., to operate a hotel there. Mr. McCreary retired in 1948 and returned to New Wilmington.

His wife, the former Mary Agnes Hamilton died in 1949.

Surviving is a son, David, of New Wilmington, and a sister, Mrs. Edna Beck, Akron, O.

Palbearers were John A. Miller, Jr., David McCreary, Jr., King McCreary, Twing Hixcox, James Cox and Russell Wilson.

Burial was in Fair Oaks cemetery.

Canoeist Pulls Two Out Of Susquehanna

HARRISBURG, Sept. 5.—(INS)—Presence of mind of an unidentified canoeist saved the lives of two persons last night after they were spilled into the Susquehanna river at the height of a Labor Day program.

A strong current upset the canoe of Joan Hammer, 20, of New Cumberland, and Nelson Sober, 21, of Lemoyne, pitching them into the water.

They were being carried downstream in full view of a crowd gathered on the river bank to watch a fireworks display when the unknown canoeist paddled swiftly to their rescue. He hoisted them aboard, took them ashore and then disappeared.

The rescued pair were paddling their canoe to a vantage point in the river to watch the fireworks display at Island Park in mid-river when their craft overturned.

About one and a half million Americans are questioned in public opinion polls each year.

assures its chairman, Ed DeCarbo, that the event will be a huge success.

Ladies auxiliaries of the various veterans organizations will begin preparing the mounds of food this afternoon. They will be helped by the American Legion "kitchen police."

The men of the National Guard and the Organized Reserve Corps, who with their wives and sweethearts, will attend the dance this evening, will find everything free. They are expected to arrive at 8:30 p. m. and the main program will start at 9 o'clock. Joseph Brown and Manning Weller, co-chairmen, stated today. All in all, it is expected to be a night long remembered by the men of the 229th and of the 384th.

DO IT NOW!
Another Holiday has come and gone! How time does slip away. We never realize this, until we have expected to get some certain thing done, and we count on doing it after a certain holiday. This is letting time slip away. Time belongs to us, and we should be improving it, not putting things off until a certain day, but doing it now. Now is the accepted time. Do whatever you have to do, now, not put it off until a later date, as that time may never come. Improve every minute of each day, as we do not know what another day will bring forth.

KATHRYN RINGER

WEDS DONALD POWERS

Miss Kathryn M. Ringer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira A. Ringer, Adams street, was united in marriage to Donald Crothers Powers, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Powers, Jr., East Edison avenue, on September 2.

The ceremony was performed at 6:45 o'clock in Westminster chapel, New Wilmington, with Dr. J. Paul Graham, pastor of the Third United Presbyterian church, New Castle, performing the double ring ceremony.

The young couple exchanged vows for the candlelight service before an altar embellished with ferns and palms, centered with a bouquet of white flowers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of imported white Swiss organdy over white taffeta. Pretty features were matching organdy picture hat and mitts, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and pompons.

She wore the traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue, and a lucky sixth in her shoe.

Miss Ruth Lorraine Schmidt, maid of honor, was attired in a ballerina length gown of green tulle over green taffeta, with matching hat and mitts. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and white pompons.

George C. Powers, Sr., attended his son as best man. Joseph Hartman, Jr., was usher for the ceremony.

Mrs. J. O. Collins, organist, played nuptial music which included the "Moonlight Sonata," "The Lord's Prayer," and "Because."

A reception followed at a New Wilmington dining room with 35 guests attending.

Mrs. Powers was graduated from the New Castle high school and attended Westminster college. She was employed by the Matthew Leive and Sons Incorporated. Mr. Powers, a veteran of World War II, was graduated from Beaver high school and Grove City college. He is at present enrolled at the Pennsylvania State college for post graduate work.

After a wedding trip through Virginia, the couple will reside at their newly furnished apartment in State College, Pa.

MISS ANN CIALELLA

ENGAGEMENT KNOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Cialella, of 133 East Leasure avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ann Cialella, to Fred Napadano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Napadano, of Mable street. The news was revealed at a family dinner, with members of the immediate families present.

The engagement will terminate in a wedding on October 9.

Rebekah Lodge No. 37, Emeline Rose Rebekah lodge No. 37 will gather in the newly decorated rooms of the L. O. O. F. hall, East Washington street, Wednesday at 7:45 p. m., when officers will be nominated. Mrs. Marie Roof will be in charge of entertainment, while lunch will be served under the leadership of Mrs. Anna Stephenson.

O'LEARY BROWN

BEAUTIFUL RITE

White gladioli, white baby mums, ferns and lighted branched candelabra decorated the altar of St. Mary's church for the ceremony which united the lives of Miss Margaret Mary O'Leary and Emil Paul Brown.

The charming rite was performed Saturday, September 2, at 10 o'clock with Rev. Fr. Albert Goralka officiating at the impressive double ring service.

Miss O'Leary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. O'Leary, 114 South Scott street, and Mr. Brown is the son of Mrs. Charles J. Brown, Sr., R. D. 1, Volant.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was attractively attired in a lovely creation of rose point Chantilly lace. The bodice was fashioned with a scalloped off-shoulder effect, with sheer marquisette yoke. Long sleeves tapered to points at the wrists. The full skirt, styled over a hoop, terminated in a cathedral train. A white satin crown, trimmed with orange blossoms, caught up her fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a handkerchief which had been carried by her mother and sister at their weddings, and also wore a shilling in her shoe. A strand of pearls was a gift of the groom, and she carried a bouquet of white baby mums and orange blossoms with ivy.

Mrs. Patricia Pugh as her sister's matron of honor, wore with charm a gown of apricot gold satin with sheer marquisette tucked yoke and Peter Pan collar. The full skirt fell over a hoop, and she wore matching mitts and half hat trimmed with a tiny lime green plume at the side. She carried a bouquet of yellow and rust colored baby mums with ivy.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Kay O'Leary, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Nancy Brown, niece of the bride. They were attired in gowns of lime green satin, featured with lace basque bodice and full skirts over hoops. They wore matching mitts and half hats trimmed with plumes. Their bouquets consisted of yellow baby mums and ivy streamers.

Alex Brown served his brother as best man. Ushers included nephews of the groom, Bob and Ben Brown.

Music for the nuptial high mass was played by the church organist, with the Ave Marie heard at the offertory.

A reception for 150 guests was held at the bride's home from 5 to 9 a. m. The couple later departed for a honeymoon to Denver, Colorado by car, and will reside at 144 East Main street, Grove City after October 1.

The bride, a graduate of the local senior high school, was formerly employed as secretary at the Universal-Rundle corporation. The groom, a graduate of the Grove City high school, is affiliated in business with his brother at the Brown Coal company.

Dresden Club To Meet
Members of the Dresden club will meet Friday, September 8 at 8 o'clock. The group will gather in the clubroom of the Y.W.C.A.

GALBREATH-KIDD EXCHANGE OF VOWS

First Presbyterian church, New Castle, was the scene of a lovely ceremony which united in marriage Miss Mary Louise Galbreath and Donald F. Kidd, Saturday, September 2.

Wedding vows were repeated by the young couple at 4 o'clock with the bride's father, Dr. R. F. Galbreath, performing the double ring service. John H. Galbreath, brother of the bride, assisted at the rite.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Ferguson Galbreath of New Wilmington, and Mr. Kidd is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Kidd of Bellevue.

The bride was attractively attired in a charming ivory satin gown, fashioned with a court train, wore a fingertip veil of illusion and carried a bouquet of pompons, roses and gladioli.

Mrs. Edward R. DeLair attended her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Carol Galbreath, Miss Ellen Cotton, Miss Pauline Elliott and Mrs. Richard Donaldson. They wore identical gowns of delect blue taffeta, featured with basque bodices and full skirts. Their bouquets consisted of chrysanthemums in various autumn shades.

Roy E. Kidd served his son as best man. Ushers included Edward R. DeLair, Donald Fox, Joseph Anderson and Don McRae.

Garth Edmundson played several appropriate nuptial selections at the church organ. A reception was held in the church parlors.

The young couple plans to reside in Cleveland, O. The bride attended Westminster college and was graduated from Ohio Wesleyan university. She has been a teacher for the New Castle public schools.

The groom, a graduate of Westminster college, attended Western Reserve university graduate school. He is an accountant at Jack V. Heinz company, Cleveland.

LUCAS-WEBSTER CHURCH NUPTIALS

Miss Barbara Jane Lucas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lucas, 216 East Leasure avenue, became the bride of Frederick Seymour Webster, son of Mrs. Alfred D. Webster, Grove City, and the late Mr. Webster, at a pretty ceremony September 2 at 4:30 o'clock.

Rev. Bradford G. Webster, Buffalo, N. Y., the groom's uncle, officiated at the exchange of vows that took place before a large assemblage of friends and relatives in First Baptist church.

Given in marriage by her father, the lovely bride was attired in a gown of ivory slipper satin, styled with a sheer yoke, outlined with a Bertha collar of chantilly lace, trimmed with seed pearls, and the sleeves tapered to points at the wrist. Rows of chantilly lace, set in panels, decorated the skirt that ended in a long train.

The gown was worn by the bride's sister, Mrs. Robert Young, at her wedding. Her fingertip veil of imported French illusion fell from a satin crown trimmed with lilies of the valley. She wore a strand of pearls, the groom's gift, and carried a white Bible marked with an orchid, and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Robert Lucas, Richmond, Va., the bride's sister-in-law, was matron of honor, while Miss Shirley Dean, this city; Miss Mary Webster, Grove City; Miss Betty Gardner and Miss Betty Leistra, both of Staunton, Va., were bridesmaids. Miss Carol Abercrombie, New York City, acted as junior bridesmaid. The attendants' gowns of taffeta were styled with off-the-shoulder necklines and had large bows in the back. Their mitts and bandeaux matched the gowns.

Their small colonial bouquets were of mixed flowers.

Mrs. Lucas wore pale blue, while Miss Dean was attired in green, and Miss Webster wore yellow. Miss Gardner's gown was lavender, and Miss Leistra was in pink, also the color of Miss Abercrombie's dress.

Raymond Cornelius, Lancaster, served as best man for the groom, while Robert Young Butler; Robert Lucas, Richmond, Va.; Gene Osborne, Grove City, and Thomas Place, Oil City, were ushers.

The exchange of vows took place before a tastefully appointed altar, decorated with palms, ferns, white gladioli and tapers in branched candelabra.

Mrs. Walter Luikart, organist, who played traditional nuptial music, accompanied Jack McMillan, soloist, who sang "If I Could Tell You," "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer."

After the ceremony an open reception took place in the church social room with the Misses Barbara Gibson, Donna Henderson, Alice Dicks, Virginia Cumo, Emmy Dean and Clara Dicks as aides.

Upon returning from a trip by automobile to New York, N. Y., and Boston, Mass., the young couple will reside on Poplar street, Grove City.

Mrs. Webster, an alumna of R. E. Lee high school, Staunton, Va., attended New Castle Business college. Her husband, a graduate of Grove City high school, will be graduated from Grove City college in 1951.

FOLKS GATHER, HONOR
BRIDE AND GROOM
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones of South New Castle Boro., a group of women gathered for a party in honor of their son, Benjamin and wife, a bride and groom of August 23.

Instrumental music was furnished during the evening, by the groom's brother Tom, and Charles Borsick.

A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Fred Cozza, aunt of the groom, and his two sisters, Bessie and Flossie, and Dorothy Jewakowitz.

The honored couple received many lovely gifts.

LESSONS OF KOREA

There is as yet no indication in the battle communiques that the contingent of British troops, 1,400 strong, which has landed in Korea is in action, but this is the first force of any size from another UN nation to reach the battle scene.

The war news leaves no doubt that General MacArthur can use these new arrivals. Most Americans have fallen into the habit of thinking of the Korean beachhead as a rough rectangle defended by solid lines of troops. This is not the case. U. S. field commanders, lacking the necessary manpower to establish a firm line, are engaging in a series of "fire brigade" actions until enough men are available to them.

American commanders can make good use of the colorful Scots regiment that has arrived. They can use the approximately 4,000 Turkish troops that are on the high seas bound for the Asiatic battlefield.

But the difficulties and time lag in getting other troops into action have started many Americans thinking. Ten weeks have passed since the initial strike across the 38th parallel by North Korean troops. General MacArthur still does not have enough troops. The inertia of other members of the UN who voted to draw a line against Communist aggression in Korea doesn't make the future defense of, say Iran, or Indo-China, or, most important, western Europe, seem very rosy.

From Korea a series of tactical and strategic lessons may be drawn. The sectors of the world that are arrayed against the forcible spread of communism cannot ignore these lessons as they seem to be doing. Not much longer, anyway.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

The National Psychological Strategy Board is something new. Its job is to co-ordinate the work of all government agencies issuing propaganda for consumption abroad, and to decide what the propaganda is to be. Thus if U. S. planes drop leaflets in Korea, the story they tell will be one that has been worked out by experts, not dashed off by a busy general who knows more about fighting people than persuading them.

The new board's name does not contain the word "propaganda," to which many congressmen have a high incidence of resistance. But what is propaganda except advertising? Advertising is something that Americans are good at. Whether it is termed propaganda, psychological strategy, or something else, it is advertising.

This country has the truth on its side, and it's high time a start was made in out-advertising Russia. It must seem strange to persons in other lands who are lukewarm in opposing communism that a Russian named Malik is permitted to broadcast lies about the United States while standing on United States soil. This country's new propaganda machine will have a sizeable job in concocting an explanation that will sound convincing.

WHAT NEXT FROM RUSSIA?

Just now the Red Korean drive to occupy the entire peninsula seems to be blunted. While there will undoubtedly be more trying days ahead, most Americans are now confident that in the foreseeable future American and South Korean troops will have the Ko-Reds on the run. This will undoubtedly help the situation for the time being, but is causing a great many people to wonder what will come next.

While Soviet Russia is taking an apparent hands-off attitude so far as the Korean war is concerned, the whole world knows that the Kremlin is giving the North Koreans its support. Can it therefore afford to have the Ko-Reds defeated without making an unmasked effort to help them? Such effort would undoubtedly end in World War Three.

When the Ko-Reds are driven back of the 38th parallel—then what? There will be world-wide demand outside Russia and the Iron Curtain countries that the Ko-Reds be punished for the wanton attack on the South Korean and for illegal treatment of American prisoners.

What are we going to do then? Shall we go on, under the supposed guidance of the United Nations, to control the entire peninsula, setting up a real Korean Republic government? And if Russia sits idly by and permits us to do this, what will happen after UN control is withdrawn?

But the probabilities are that Russia will not sit idly by, and permit this to happen. To do so would be a severe blow at Russian Communist prestige the world over.

It is even more likely that before the Ko-Reds are finally driven north across the 38th parallel the Kremlin will start a diversionary movement in another direction. Just where the trouble will break out next is anybody's guess. Many students of international affairs believe that Iran is to be the next victim of Kremlin intrigue. It is reported that Russians are already massing outside the Iranian border. It will be easy for Stalin to start an Iranian incident. He has only to say that Iran is about to be occupied by the "imperialist" powers and he is entering the country to save it.

Of course what Stalin would really be after would be the rich Iranian oil fields and a diversion from Korea.

It could happen.

In government it is known as stockpiling. If the housewife does it it is hoarding.

Russians claim to have a tree which grows twice as rapidly as normal. But what kind of fruit does it bear in that atmosphere.

Russian manufacturer is marketing a perfume called "The Breath of Stalin." Used full strength it should be a knockout.

GEN. MACARTHUR'S CONTROVERSIES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Of all the angry controversies between General MacArthur and the top military men directing World War II in the Pentagon, perhaps none was as bitter as that over the outcome of the battle of the Bismarck sea. That controversy may be revived by an official air force history shortly to be released.

The incident strikingly illustrates the difficult relationship between Washington and the general, who has become a proconsul for America in Asia. President Truman recently discovered these difficulties for himself in a row that seemed to pit MacArthur, as a soldier, against politicians and diplomats. During the last war it was MacArthur against other military commanders, notably Admiral Chester Nimitz, commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet, with whom relations were, to put it mildly, strained.

Battle Debated
Military historians, with access to files still classified, have long debated the Bismarck sea battle. After that battle MacArthur claimed that B-17's, under his southwest Pacific command, had sunk 22 transports and destroyers out of a Japanese convoy, with a loss of not less than 20,000 Jap troops.

Air force headquarters in Washington made a careful study of this claim. In addition to all the material available at MacArthur's headquarters, they had intelligence reports obtained through the breaking of the Jap code. Their conclusion was that probably not more than 14 ships were sunk out of a convoy that never included more than 14 vessels. The loss of life was put at much less than MacArthur's estimate.

Angry Telegrams
This called for a series of angry telegrams from MacArthur's headquarters. One of these telegrams signed by MacArthur suggested that those responsible for rating down the victory should be subjected to possible punishment by a court-martial.

Air force headquarters braved MacArthur's anger, and stuck to its estimate of losses in the Bismarck sea battle. The official air force history is also reported to stand on this version.

Problem The Parent

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

WHAT TO DO ABOUT BULLIES

It's not easy to estimate the number of children under 12 or 15 who suffer from terrible fear of bullies. While these fears may have occurred in a child from time he was three or four, they are likely to increase when he enters school. The opportunities for a bully to intimidate a younger child on his way to and from school are, obviously, very great.

Fear of bullies causes timid children to tattle, to be cry babies, to be quarrelsome, to fight from ambush, to resort to sticks and stones for self-defense, to grow more anti-social, even to bully younger, weaker children. A good many children, dreading bullies, want to stay home on school mornings. Some of these will feign disorders of sickness and actually develop symptoms of illness to escape going to school, though being perfectly well and happy later in the day and on all other mornings of the week.

Consult Physician
You will, of course, have this child carefully checked by your physician. If he finds no physical illness, he may advise that the child remain home for the day but be put to bed and kept there till the next morning, with light diet and not too much attention and amusement. Then if this child had been misbehaving, he may choose to go to school the next day. Nevertheless, if it is a bully he dreads, he may prefer to stay all day in bed to escape him.

If your child is persecuted by a bully chiefly on the way to and from school, you will want to make some means to protect him. You might hire a boy several years older than your child to accompany him. You might have your child go by a different street. You might even find it desirable to take your child to and from school by car or on foot. The last named remedy may, however, make your child more dependent on you and a better victim for the bully elsewhere.

Other Protections
Sometimes the school chooses to dismiss the few known bullies several minutes later than the other children at the end of the school day.

Of course, the bully picks first and oftenest on the child he can torment most easily, on the child who is very timid and lonely, who has not learned to defend himself. (My bulletins, "Your Child and His Playmates" and "Tot Learning to Be Sociable," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to 235 East 45th Street, New York, N. Y.)

But there's no sense in urging a child, fearful of bullies, to stand up against a child much stronger and more agile than himself.

Helping the Bully
Usually the bully is a very unhappy child, often a coward. He may be in mortal dread of older, larger bullies. Perhaps he does not feel happy at home or in school. He may not do well in the usual play skills. He may feel very inferior. Tormenting weaker, younger children makes him feel that he is brave and successful. Anything that can be done to help the bully feel a more worthy person can help him to cease bullying.

In the neighborhood, the parent of a child fearful of a bully living nearby can do most to protect his own child by helping the bully feel more worthy—by honest praise of the bully's good traits in his parents' presence, encouraging him to join the Cub Scouts, or even hiring him to run errands or to be a protector of the timid children. While few parents recognize their own child as a bully, it is they who should be able to do most for him.

World affairs still haven't that much searched after look... The men who are doing it all on Korea should have everyone's support... but would you believe it, there are some here in the United States who think differently. The boarders we think of especially... what kind of citizens are they anyhow?

And how about those who don't vote... and the reasons they give for not going to the polls. Too tired is an often heard reason... if you ever gave that reason just stop and think about those men in Korea... they get tired, yes, me tired than you have ever been... and they are keeping up the pace... and a greater pace than you ever thought existed.

Any living soul FREE in the United States that doesn't do his part to keep this nation FREE from the iron fingers of Communism should have his dreams filled with the terrors of torture... for that is what he or she will bring down upon the heads of all peoples once Communism becomes the ruling power.

Those who say they have denounced Communism need be watched... for why have they changed all of a sudden? True, people can change and we hope that all who have evil thoughts do change... but those who change over-night still need the caution of being closely watched by the defenders of true liberty... for who knows it might be a scheme... a commie scheme... Those who follow the red rule will not stop at anything, and we mean anything, to gain a point.

Let's not sleep... remembering that one power alone guides the true world.

The Matthews Doctrine

(By HOLMES ALEXANDER)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 5.—Warmongering, as previously noted here, is the most subtle of the political arts—and it will not do to pool-pool the recent speech by Navy Secretary Matthews in which he called upon the U. S. to become "aggressors for peace." There is too much beneath the surface.

Pentagon spokesmen, while rolling their eyes in affected innocence, will privately volunteer a couple of interesting analogies. They liken the Matthews trial balloon to the famous "quarantine the aggressor" speech by Roosevelt in 1937. They cite a much more recent utterance, this time by Churchill, the greatest historian-statesman of our time, in which he said: "We cannot fight the tentacles of an octopus. We must fight at the heart."

Idea Is No Stranger
This idea of fighting Russia instead of Russian satellites is no stranger around Stassen than a fortnight ago Harold Stassen was demanding that Congress and the United Nations deliver an ultimatum to the Kremlin. Some months ago in a private Philadelphia meeting of the so-called Stassen Underground, he offered another belligerent proposal. It was that the U. S. announce it was sending an unarmed plane over exactly the same Baltic route which had recently proved fatal to another of our planes. If the Russians shot this next one down, we were to go to war. Stassen is spokesman for a sizable wing of the Republican party.

But the theme of aggressive warfare is strongest, of course, within the party in power, specifically in military-minded circles. On August 22 Rep. John Walsh (D-Indiana), member of the House Armed Services committee, said in a Cleveland address: "We are not going to continue fighting secondary nations. I can tell you officially that the thinking in Washington has changed (since the Korean war began)." On August 26 we heard in Washington broadcast by American Legion National Commander George Craig that: "America must now take a resolute stand for peace by compulsion—almost the identical words used by Matthews on August 25 in Boston."

Pentagon Inspiration?
It takes no Hawkshaw to tie the Walsh-Craig speeches with Pentagon inspiration. Defense Secretary Johnson necessarily uses the two armed services committees as his sounding board on Capitol Hill. As a past national commander of the Legion, surrounded by its personnel and close to its policy, Johnson often speaks through the committee.

And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.—Genesis 1:5.

They Say

WASHINGTON—President Truman's "Communist" imperialism preaches peace but practices aggression. We do not believe in aggressive or preventive war. Such a war is the weapon of dictators, not of free democratic countries like the United States. We do not want Formosa or any part of Asia for ourselves.

WASHINGTON—Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force Chief of Staff: "The premise that war is inevitable is not only untrue but is most dangerous."

WASHINGTON—Sen. Connally (D Tex., on the 4.5 billion dollar tax bills: "You can't put off the Korean war. It's here now. But you can put off profiteering."

PARIS—Pierre Belmain, noted French courier, on the ideal woman: "She must have blue eyes. She must be vivacious, charming, full of tact and at the same time amusing. She should be 30, the most fascinating age for the female sex."

Great Game Of Politics

By FRANK R. KENT

(Copyright 1950, By The Baltimore Sun)

IS THERE NO LIMIT?
WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.
In this place last week the outstanding reason for loss of popular confidence in the Democratic Administration was listed as failure of the President to rise above the "politics as usual" level since the Korean invasion. To this there was an unusual response from readers who pointed out that sound as were the incidents given to support this belief, an even more convincing cause for resentment lies in the degrading tolerance toward corruption in public life evinced by the Democratic leadership.

This feeling was greatly stimulated two weeks ago when in House debate over an armory construction program the name of former Representative Andrew J. May, of Kentucky, was mentioned. Mr. May, it will be recalled, was chairman of the House Military Affairs Committee during World War II. In 1947 he was convicted of accepting $53,000 in bribes for his influence in having war contracts awarded. Short of actual treason, a more despicable crime on the part of a public man can hardly be conceived. Sentenced to serve in the penitentiary from 8 to 24 months, his application for parole was rejected a short time ago after he had served his minimum sentence. On August 15, when the name of this acknowledged bribe-taker came up, Democratic Leader John McCormack, of Massachusetts, leaped to his feet and shouted that he could not resist the opportunity "to pay a tribute to Andy May." He then called this convicted crook a "great American" and declared that the people of his district "are justified in being proud of him."

Not the least shocking part of this performance was that this tribute to a proven grafter was received with applause from a considerable number of Democratic members. It is almost unbelievable that in a body of men claiming the respect of honest people not a single voice should have been raised to protest against this laudation of a man whose unsavory record has disgraced the House of Representatives as has nothing else in a generation. One correspondent asks: "To what depths of moral degradation are we sinking?"

Certainly, it is easy to understand the indignation which Mr. McCormack's description of the bribe-taking Mr. May as a "great American" has aroused among people who read it. What induced Mr. McCormack to make so outrageous a statement is not known. He ought to apologize to the House and to the American people. It is not easy for self-respecting Democrats to follow such a leader and the popular resentment is not surprising. There ought to be ways of making this more effectively felt, and Mr. McCormack ought not to be permitted to get away with so indecent a "tribute" without a rebuke that he will not forget.

It is natural, too, that this should recall the action of President Truman in pardoning James Michael Curley, Democratic Mayor of Boston, who was convicted in 1946 on charges of using the United States mails to defraud. Two appeals for a Supreme Court review failed and so did a final effort to suspend the jail sentence on grounds of age and health. The Truman pardon freed Mr. Curley exactly five months after he began serving his six to eighteen months' prison sentence. Though unaccompanied by anything as brazen as the McCormack eulogy, Mr. Truman's action, besides restoring citizenship to this convicted Democrat, released him in time to spend Thanksgiving with his family. This seemed very kind-hearted indeed, but his most intimate friends have not suggested that Mr. Truman would have been quite so sentimental about a Republican crook just ahead of the 1948 election.

There is, of course, no link between the Messrs. May and Curley and the case of Alger Hiss. Mr. Hiss was not charged with fraud or graft. But, while convicted of perjury, the public generally held him guilty of the far more serious crime of transmitting secret State Department documents to a known Communist, who was sending them to Russia. Yet practically the whole Democratic Administration supported Mr. Hiss, and so far as any retraction is concerned, still supports him. When the facts were first revealed, Mr. Truman asserted they were merely "a red herring." Others high up in his Administration testified to the high character of Mr. Hiss and their complete belief in his innocence. Not one of these has ever retreated from this position, though after two trials Hiss' final conviction left slight room to doubt his guilt. There is the further fact that, however, stupid and reckless Senator McCarthy may be, the Administration attitude from the start of that investigation was such as to leave many feeling it was more concerned with discrediting McCarthy than with full disclosure of the truth.

When in time such as this Democratic leaders can proclaim such a man as May a "great American," it justifies recalling these other instances of tolerance of crime and corruption. Certainly, it justifies that question, "To what depths of moral degradation are we sinking?" In fact, it justifies two other questions: (1) "Is there any kind of crime a Democrat can commit which will lose him the support of the present Democratic leadership?" (2) "How far can tolerance of crime and corruption by the party in power go before there is a public revolt?" Or, is there no limit?

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDELS

I have met a happy man. Right at our kitchen door. Every philosopher, every writer, every poet has tried to define happiness.

None has succeeded. Happiness cannot be defined. It can only be felt. It is one thing to you, another to me. Something that might make you very happy might not mean anything at all to me.

But this man at the kitchen door made me understand the real meaning of happiness better than anyone else has yet been able to do.

It was a pretty nasty day—muggy, dank, threatening to rain any moment, the kind of day that makes every ache more bothersome, every husband get out of his wife's way to avoid a spat.

We had just finished our breakfast, when, at the kitchen door I heard someone humming.

"Oh, what a beautiful morning!" was the tune, and then came a knock.

I was about ready to give a good dressing down to the darn fool who'd hum that kind of tune on a morning like this—but when I went to the door, there stood a little gray-haired fellow with a big grin on his face.

"How would you like to have me make you a sign like this to go on top of your mailbox?" he asked.

Then came a sales talk: The sign is luminous. White letters on black that reflect automobile headlights at night. Ordinary signs are hidden by the snow in winter. This one is "way up high. Etc., etc., etc. And only $3.95!

I asked the man how long it would take to have one of those signs made.

"About fifteen minutes," he said. "I have my shop right outside. I got interested and went out with him.

There was his shop—all in the back of his station wagon—a stenocling machine, a cutter, raw material and what not. I asked him (Continued on Next Page)

Mrs. J. Q. A. McDowell Expires At Danbury

Mrs. J. Q. A. McDowell, nee Harriet Phipps, died September 2, at her summer home in Danbury, Conn., after a long illness, according to a message received by local friends. She was the widow of Rev. J. Q. A. McDowell, D.D.

Mrs. McDowell, who was born in New Castle, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Phipps, residents of North Jefferson street. She was graduated from New Castle High school and Mt. Holyoke college, having taught later in the Senior High school prior to her marriage. Rev. McDowell was pastor of Second U.P. church, this city, for many years, resigning to accept the pastorate of the Presbyterian church, Danville, Ky. The family resided in Danville until Rev. McDowell's retirement, when they moved to Louisville, Ky.

Throughout the years of her husband's ministry and until her illness, Mrs. McDowell was a leader in religious and educational circles, having been prominent in the life of the Presbyterian church. In recent years she resided with Mr. and Mrs. Elliott McDowell, 100 Pinewood road, Hartsdale, N. Y.

Survivors are: her son, Elliott McDowell, and grandson, John, both of Hartsdale.

Funeral services were conducted this morning at Danville, where interment took place.

He used to be an executive in a large Connecticut manufacturing firm. Several hundred people under him. Telephones, telegrams, bills, conferences, routine, investigation, irritations. He was tied down, his soul wasn't his own. He and his wife did a lot of fighting. A nervous breakdown was on the way.

He drew a five-figure salary, owned his home, had two cars, was considered an important man in his community.

But he was unhappy. One day he and his wife sat down and did a lot of thinking and talking together.

The next day he quit his job.

He bought himself this sign-making outfit and started out soliciting orders. In summer he does business in New England. In fall he works his way down south. In winter he sells and makes his signs in Florida. Spring finds them wherever it is nice. She always travels with him—and together they are as happy as two larks.

W.S.C.S. MEETING

The regular meeting of the W.S.C.S. of the Wampum Methodist church was held in the church on Friday evening with Mrs. Ray McBride leader of devotions. The subject being, Health through A Brotherhood of Nations. The call to worship was read by Mrs. McBride. The hymn "What A Friend We Have in Jesus" sung by the group. Prayer by Mrs. John Allen. Scripture was read by Mrs. Frank Guy, and the hymn "Somebody Did A Golden Deed" by the group. Short talks were given by the following: Mrs. Gordon Henderson, spoke on the three killers, "Heart disease, Cancer and Polio." Miss Vesta Leight spoke on "Health in the Public Schools." The hymn "Wonderful Peace" sung by the group. Mrs. Guy Davis spoke on "The Hospital and You." This part of the meeting was closed by the group singing the hymn "Now The Day Is Over."

At this time the "Tenth Birthday Anniversary" of the W.S.C.S. was celebrated. Mrs. Alfred Miles and Mrs. Wayne Walker both gave short talks. Both being former presidents were presented with a corsage by the present president, Mrs. Ray McBride. Mrs. Robert Conrad rendered "My Green Cathedral" as a solo, accompanied at the piano by Miss Pearl Truby. Attending this meeting as special guests were four members of the Simpson Methodist church and their minister, Rev. Shaeffer. Mrs. Llewellyn, president of the Simpson W.S.C.S. presented the Wampum church with a birthday cake bearing eleven candles. One candle for each goal that was to be met and one to grow on. The goals were read by Mrs. McBride. Verses for the goals read by Mrs. Frank Mielke. As the goals were read that the Wampum Methodist church had met, the candles were lit by Mrs. Isaac Llewellyn. All eleven candles were lit, after which time Mrs. Llewellyn was presented with a corsage and a book which was compiled by the Wampum W.S.C.S.

The service was closed with the singing of the hymn, "My Jesus I Love Thee" and the benediction by Rev. Shaeffer, after which time the meeting adjourned to the dining room where refreshments were served by the social committee. The tables were decorated with candles with the birthday cake as a center piece. Cupcakes were placed at each place, each bearing a small candle.

In attendance were 27 members and five guests. Serving on the social committee were Miss Dorothy Jean Anderson, chairman, Miss Maxine Thewes, Mrs. Clair Houk, and Miss Leila Kirschler.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 5.—(INS)—Private Policeman John S. Williams, appeared out of danger today from bullet wounds inflicted by a bandit who had broken into a McKee-Oliver Steel corporation in Pittsburgh.

The bandit wrestled the gun from the one policeman inside, then dashed outside and fire twice at Williams before fleeing.

SHE WENT

LONDON — (INS) — Mrs. Margaret Sykes was told at Bath "Be blown to the lot of you," and that a wife need not give evidence against her husband in a bigamy case. Then the clerk of the court said: "If you like you can say: 'Be blown to the lot of you,' and walk out." Said Mrs. Sykes: "I will"—and promptly left the court.

divisions which opened a six-mile gap in the South Korean capital division's line hammered to within two miles north of Kyongju.

Kyongju is 17 miles northwest of Pohang and 34 miles east of Taegu.

Drive Is Slowed

Earlier, an Eighth Army communiqué said that the enemy drive on Kyongju, an important road hub linking the Taegu-Pusan highway and railroad, had been "considerably slowed north of the city."

Heavy fighting raged throughout Tuesday in the Pohang zone but the report of the key port's fall could not be checked because of poor contact between the American defending forces and rear echelon headquarters.

Correspondent Levine said Tabudong fell to advance spearheads of the Red Thirteenth Division and other large elements of the division were deployed around the city.

Communications between Taegu and American Field Headquarters were so bad that Levine had to dictate his story to an air force colonel who relayed it by telephone to Tokyo.

The fall of Tabudong, gravely threatened Taegu by opening the "bowling alley" route down a main level highway from the north.

The Red break through to the northeast threatening the main highway running through mountain passes from Pohang through Yongchon to Taegu.

The Communist invaders were reported nearing Yongchon, principal midway junction between Pohang and Taegu.

Counter-attacking U. S. troops were reported to have surrounded and wiped out 1,000 Red troops in slowing the enemy stab against Kyongju.

Twenty-eight miles below Taegu, U. S. Marines and Army troops scored a further one-mile advance in peeling down a big Red bridgehead east of Nakdong as some enemy units fled back across the river.

Some 60,000 enemy troops were striking along the north portion of the front in an apparent all-out endeavor to cave in the foot of the U. N. beachhead, envelop Pohang, overwhelm Taegu and open the road to Pusan.

Two Persons Hurt In Auto Mishaps

Albert Patterson, aged 64, of R. D. 5, had his arm out of a window and in a collision with another car, he bumped his arm on door frame, receiving contusions of left arm and back of neck. He was treated in the Jameson Memorial hospital, Helen Zangerm of R. D. 1, Portage, Pa., was also treated at Jameson Memorial hospital at 5 p.m. Monday, for laceration of right knee, received in a two-car collision on the Harbor road.

Dewey To Run For Third Term

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 5.—(INS)—(INS)—New York state Republican leaders, successful in their drive to draft Governor Dewey for a third term nomination, strove today to draft Lt. Gov. Joe R. Hanley for the GOP senatorial nomination.

Dewey, who said last June he would not run for reelection, changed his mind because of the impact of the war upon the nation's largest state. In a letter to Hanley, who withdrew from the race for the gubernatorial nomination Saturday, urging Dewey to run, the governor said: "I have asked thousands and soon will be asking hundreds of thousands of volunteers to sacrifice their time, their private affairs, and perhaps their lives in defense of our state."

"In good conscience I cannot ask others to serve unless I am equally willing to serve."

Dewey's step, which he couples with a strong new attack on the President and his conduct of the Korean war, caused speculation that the governor also may change his mind concerning a further try for the Republican presidential nomination in 1952.

Coolies See Swimming Pool At Eaton Rapids

Twenty-seven coolie members and auxiliary members of Post 315, V.F.W. of this city, have returned from Eaton Rapids, Mich., where they witnessed the dedication of the Coolie Swimming Pool at the Veterans of Foreign Wars National Home for kiddies of war veterans, on Saturday, September 2.

Funds for the swimming pool were raised by the Coolies and auxiliary in the United States and Hawaii. It is 30 by 80 feet in size with a small oval wading pool in addition. It adjoins the Coolie athletic field, presented in 1941. Among the interested spectators were six European war orphans who were brought to the United States for a tour of this country by the National American Legion Auxiliary, under "Operation Freedom," who will return to their country this week.

DOROTHY CIOFFI WEDS R. S. JAMES

Miss Dorothy Cioffi, daughter of Mrs. Clara Krueger, 1020 Beckford street, was united in marriage to Robert Sankey James, Pass-a-Grille, Fla., son of Bert J. James, Vine street, and Mrs. Valleria C. James, Pass-a-Grille, at a lovely ceremony September 2, at 7:30 o'clock.

Reading the impressive double ring service, Rev. Robert H. Mayo officiated at the exchange of vows in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives in the First U. P. church.

Given in marriage by her brother, James Cioffi, Pittsburgh, the attractive bride wore an off-white tulle gown with a double skirt, a double length dress was trimmed with embroidered flowers from the neckline to the hemline. She wore a helmet-styled hat of illusion with a shoulder-length veil and short mitts that matched her hat. Her arm bouquet was of white roses.

Miss Vivian Ketola, who served as maid of honor, was attired in a pale green gown, fashioned similarly to the bride's. Her helmet hat and short mitts were also of illusion. She carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

Edward Bush acted as best man for the groom, while Earl Comstock, Edwin Hoye, William Samuels, this city, and John E. Wilson, Bethesda, Md., the groom's brother-in-law, ushered.

The candlelight ceremony was performed before a tastefully embanked altar, decorated with palms, ferns, pink and white gladioli and tapers in branched candelabra.

Nuptial music was offered by Mrs. John M. Love, church organist, preceding the exchange of vows. Organ music was softly recounded during the ceremony.

After a congratulatory period in the church vestibule, 100 guests were entertained at a delightful reception in the social rooms of the church.

The young couple left for a honeymoon, during which time they will spend a week at Pass-a-Grille, before returning north to reside temporarily with the bride's mother at 1020 Beckford street.

The bride and groom are both graduates of New Castle high school. She is employed in the toilet goods department of the New Castle store. Mr. James attended the University of Florida for the past three years, being enrolled in the education and health department, in which field he plans to major.

How will the Korean crisis affect coal?

No one can now answer this question, because no one knows all the facts or can anticipate them. One thing we do know: Common-sense buying and storing of coal to build up inventories and prepare for winter and possible transportation shortages, which are growing, will be to the great advantage of those who purchase coal before winter comes and before railroad equipment, including cars for the transportation of coal, are taken for the use of the increasing output of military supplies.

You can now select the kind of coal that is most suitable for your own home. By careful selection you can not only obtain coal of the kind you need but can, at the same time, protect your continuity of supply from responsible producers who can and will serve your needs. Whether you are making steel, heating your home, supplying a factory, or operating any other type of industrial business, you can still select coals that will give you the greatest efficiency. There is normally enough good coal to go around if bought and stored wisely throughout the year. A sound buying policy now will help keep the coal industry free from government controls, government allocations and government distribution under which you would not always be able to select coal of the size, kind and quality you need.

We do not recommend the type of inventory buying that has developed and which has helped create shortages and increase prices in foods, copper, steel, lumber, rubber, sugar, textiles and many other commodities in the past few weeks. This type of buying is unwise and, if continued, will probably prove disastrous to all industry if every user of materials, who normally carries a 60-day supply, tries to get a year's supply. That is what is causing Congress to consider drastic laws to control the price and distribution of goods.

Our country is confronted with a critical situation, but with good, sound thinking and common sense, it can, in cooperation with other peace-loving nations, establish a sound and just peace in the world more quickly than if we approach our problems in an hysterical manner.

COAL IS OUR COUNTRY'S BASIC MATERIAL FOR HEAT, LIGHT AND POWER. Except for an ample supply of coal in the United States, World Wars I and II could not have been brought to a successful conclusion. Coal stands ready to serve again, but it can serve most effectively only if coal is stored in the greatest possible quantities during the spring, summer and fall months when transportation and handling are most efficient.

Court House

Many Voters
Are RegisteredSpecial Registrations
Swell Voting Rolls

Over 450 voters became eligible to vote during the past week, Chief Clerk A. Lewis Conn of the permanent registration bureau stated, most of whom were added at the special registration days conducted in Ellwood City, Bessemer, Hillsville and the fifth, seventh and eighth wards.

At the office of the registration bureau in the court house annex, 29 Republicans and 22 Democrats registered, with one lone Prohibitionist.

In the registrations conducted in the outlying districts, 150 Republicans, 257 Democrats and three no-party registrations were recorded.

Less than two weeks remain for voters to get registered for the general election this fall, and it is expected that renewed activity to bring voters into the fold will be put forth by both parties.

FILES DAMAGE CLAIM

Damages in the sum of $341.80 are asked by Lawrence V. Flinner of 213 Johnson avenue, Ellwood City, against Kenneth I. Beacham of Wiley Hill, Ellwood City, as the result of a collision between a truck driven by Beacham and a parked car owned by Flinner on Fourth street, Ellwood City, on January 10, 1950.

Cat Walks Over Hundred Miles Back To Chicago

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—(INS)—The foot-sore, weary paws of a cat named Tom offer strong proof today of the superiority of Chicago mice.

Tom, a dependable mice-retriever for 10 years at the Chicago home of Mrs. Dorothy Crisci, was recently given to a tenant who moved to Logansport, Ind.

Yesterday Tom turned up at Mrs. Crisci's door, his feet torn and swollen.

The distance from Logansport to Chicago is 122 miles.

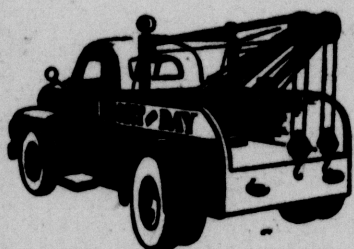

The skin is made up of two parts.

THE FAMILY
SCRAPBOOK

By F. R. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

"You're a bad boy!" One wonders how often that statement has been made to children! Over and over again, parents use it. And in many instances, the youngsters haven't known just what it was they had done that was bad.

If discipline is learning—learning what is the right thing to do when the "you're a bad boy" approach isn't a very useful one. What we should do to help our erring youngsters understand reasons for not doing that which is "bad" and assist them to find other ways of expressing themselves.

Thus, when three-year-old Paul spreads tooth paste all over the place, we can show him how to use it correctly on the brush. We can give him substitutes for the joy he gets from smearing. Finger painting would be a reasonable facsimile.

Many a child having been labeled as "bad" seems to feel he might as well live up to the reputation. If instead of thus labeling him, we stress the desirable things he does and help him understand the reasons for not doing the undesirable ones, we'll soon find there are fewer and fewer occasions when we'll be tempted to say "You're a bad boy!"

NO GIRLS
OLYMPIA, Wash.—The birth of a boy to Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie Zumwalt left a long-standing Zumwalt tradition unmarred. A girl has not been born in the family since 1838.

The marriage ceremony among the early Anglo-Saxons consisted simply of the two principals clasping hands.

Hundreds Here
Are Victims Of Starved Blood!

Certa-Vin Enriches Your Blood
With Iron; Builds Stronger
Nerves With Vitamin B; Relieves Gassy Stomach; Try
This New Formula for Only a Few Cents a Day.

If you feel weak, and look pale, you may have "Starved Blood." Science tells us that too little Red Coloring Matter in the blood slows down energy and takes away the healthy looks of many people.

Some victims scarcely know what is wrong with them. They feel like they are tied to a log everytime they try to do something. Their blood cells are shrunken or faded-out. This is BLOOD STARVATION. Such persons wonder why tonics fail them—why they have to be half-sick and half-well—why they can't have their full share of energy.

Works With Your Food
Such discouraged people will now find—in CERTA-VIN—two liquid elements that regenerate Red Blood Cells. This new formula is taken before meals and WORKS WITH YOUR FOOD. Thus your food digests faster and better, with less gas and bloating, so you get the fullest good out of your meals. Soon your watery blood is enriched with iron and your nerves are energized with Vitamin B. Your red blood count goes up, and you feel better all over.

Benefit comes quickly, usually within 3 or 4 days. And the price of CERTA-VIN is reasonable. You can actually take this new medicine for a Few Cents a Day! So if you are a victim of blood poverty, gassy stomach, or lack vitality, don't go on suffering. Get Certa-Vin at all leading Drug Stores of New Castle.

Only Two Motor
Accidents Here
Over Week-End

Only two motor accidents were reported to state police over the week end, they announced today.

One person was injured and received hospital treatment.

The injured party was Mrs. Mary Hammond, R. D., who was an occupant of a car driven by her daughter, Mrs. Flora J. Swogger, 110 North Mercer street, city. Her car and that of David C. Doot, Jr., 338 Kurtz street, city, were in a collision at the junction of Skyhill and Edenburg roads at 5:10 p. m. Sunday.

Cars of D. R. Bauder, Ellwood City, and Richard Cronemiller, Altoona, were in an accident on route 488 Saturday at 7:45 p. m. No one was hurt in the accident, which caused slight damage.

Postage stamps were first used in America in 1847.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Murder-Suicide
Verdict Returned

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Sept. 5.

(INS)—A verdict of murder and suicide was recorded today by Lycoming county coroner C. R. Martin in the deaths of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ulmer of Saladsburg, R. D.

Ulmer, a 41-year-old carpenter, shot his 21-year-old wife three times as she stood by their automobile near their home and then walked into their home and committed suicide with a bullet in the head, according to state police.

Martin theorized that Mrs. Ulmer was shot yesterday at the time she tried to flee in the automobile following an argument. The shooting was discovered by a milkman.

Cpl. R. G. Anderson said Mrs. Ulmer died from two bullets in her body and another in her throat.

QUAKE HEIGHTENS EVEREST'S PEAK

DEATH TOLL, already over 5,000, continues to mount in India's province of Assam floods which followed the earthquake of August 15, the fifth most severe ever recorded. Fissures like that in a village road (top) are often 6-feet deep. The quake made geological history, according to Dr. D. N. Wadia of the Indian government, by adding 198 feet to Mt. Everest (bottom, left). This peak in the Himalaya Mountains, already the highest point on earth, rose to 29,200 feet, says Dr. Wadia. Some geologists believe the Assam earthquake, which affected nearly 30,000 square miles, indicates that the Himalayan chain is gradually moving southward toward the plains of India. (International)

Seventh Ward

Rev. J. L. Petrie
At ConferenceOther News From
Seventh Ward

Rev. John L. Petrie, pastor of the Mahoning Methodist church, left today for Erie Conference of the Methodist church which officially opens Wednesday at Meadville.

The conference year of the Methodist church closed on Sunday morning, with Rev. Petrie bringing a communion meditation, followed by the serving of the Lord's Supper. The church closed a most successful year, with progress in every department.

Rev. Petrie departed a day early for the conference, due to the fact that he is serving on the important treasurer's board. The board began its duties Sunday evening, but due to the fact that Rev. Petrie must officiate at a funeral today, he did not depart until late this afternoon.

There are no regular preaching services scheduled for the Mahoning Methodist church next Sunday, due to the fact that the conference will be going into its closing sessions. Sunday school will meet at the usual hour of 9:45 a.m. Regular schedule of services will be resumed on Sunday, September 17.

Appointments for all local Methodist churches will be read at the 4:30 p.m. session of the conference on September 10 by Bishop Wicke. Waddell Bible class members will assemble this evening, 7:45 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Chester Johnson, West Madison avenue, for their regular meeting. Mrs. Maurice Boyd will be a co-hostess for the meeting.

Cy Boyd Class
Meeting Changed

The corn and wiener roast of the Cy Boyd Bible class of the Mahoning Methodist church, has been moved ahead from Friday evening to Saturday evening. It has been announced by officers of the class. The meeting will take place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wylie of the Mt. Jackson road at 6 p.m.

Hosts for the event, are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lewis, Clair Arble and Elsie Mae Jolley. Members will bring their own table service.

Ward Reporter On Visit To England

Arthur J. Rees, reporter of the seventh ward column will be absent from his duties for several weeks while he spends a vacation period in England and Wales renewing acquaintances and meeting relatives whom he has not seen since he left Wales years ago.

Mr. Rees will leave on the Queen Elizabeth from New York City Thursday morning. He will board the ship Wednesday evening and remain in port for the night, the boat embarking the following morning.

During his absence the ward column will appear daily in The News with other reporters carrying on. Any news for the seventh ward column should be called directly to The News with the caller asking for the seventh ward reporter, or sent written out to The News editorial department.

Mahoning School
Has Opening Today

Teachers and pupils alike enjoyed a brief getting re-acquainted session at the Mahoning school this morning which was the first day of school for the 1950-51 session.

The teachers of the school assembled at 9 a.m. and were briefed by principal Fred McLure as to what he expected of them during the coming school term. Last minute details and problems were ironed out and schedules arranged.

At 10 a.m. the school children, resplendent in clean outfits and gleaming countenances poured into the building filling into their respective rooms to receive their books and other materials for the semester.

Surprisingly few absences were noted during the first day sessions it was reported by Mr. McLure. Complete figures were not available today for the enrollment but will be released Wednesday.

Madison Berean
Class To Meet

Ladies Berean Bible class of the Madison avenue Christian church will assemble this evening at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. E. N. Jones, Mt. Jackson road with a good attendance desired for the meeting.

Members of the Church Ladies' Aid Society will gather on Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. at the church for their regular meeting. Mrs. Florence Mullen will be hostess for the day. The church official board will meet at 8 p.m. on Wednesday.

St. Margaret's Council To Meet

St. Margaret's Council No. 74, will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock in St. Margaret's Hall on Liberty street. Business of importance will be transacted during the evening.

The meeting which takes place the first Monday of the month was postponed until this evening due to the fact that Labor Day was on Monday and most members were away enjoying the final holiday of the year.

Chief Of Police
Thanks Volunteers

Robert D. Hanna, chief of police, today thanked volunteer police of the surrounding district for aiding in policing the crowd at the Derby event, Taylor street, Labor Day. The volunteers were under command of Harry Leathers of Slippery Rock.

LABOR DAY CELEBRATION AT HILLSVILLE

The above picture of the two-day Labor celebration of Hillsville, sponsored by the St. Lucy's society, shows Rev. Fr. Joseph A. Mastrangelo, pastor of St. Lucy's church as he is surrounded by the officials of the society and auxiliary during a brief intermission of the many activities featured on Sunday and Monday.

Forty-fourth annual Labor Day celebration of Hillsville continued for two days—Sunday and Monday—and as usual proved highly successful, with many attending. The celebration was sponsored by the St. Lucy's society.

On Sunday evening a band concert was enjoyed, and fireworks on Monday evening. Another band concert was featured Monday.

Monday morning a gala Labor Day parade was held. Societies and organizations from Hillsville and other communities participated in the two-day celebration.

Rev. Fr. Joseph A. Mastrangelo was in charge of the church services Monday at 9:30 a.m. During the two days a large crowd of visitors attended the community and joined in the celebration.

General chairman of the entire event was Joseph Gennaro, Jr., and the committee who assisted included: Francis Gregg, Joseph Mediate, Joseph Gennaro, Sr., Marshall Sackin, Frank A. Rosse, Mike Pezzullo, Richard Mittica, Andy Sackin, Tony Donofrio, Mike Lupo, Ben Lupo, Tony Lusere, Nick Pelito, Marshall Maceri, Donato Lupo, Paul Lupo, Louis Lagnese, Albert Catala, Mike Sackin, Lawrence Sheldone and Frank Massucci.

Library Of Congress
Could Be Searched
In Ten Seconds

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—(INS)—Scientists meeting in Chicago today heard plans for an electronic reading machine that could "search" the entire Library of Congress in 10 seconds, select all the information on a given subject, and print 10 selected abstracts in a minute.

Dr. Calvin N. Mooers of Boston told the convention the proposed whirlwind documentary engine—the "doken"—employs microphotographic film wound on a drum ten feet in diameter and seven feet long. Each negative would be specially coded.

He explained that the "doken" will have a scanning head and an electronic memory device to enable it to "read" the filmed reports and select the desired abstracts.

Dr. Mooers said the machine will be the only device capable of handling the backlog of more than 100 million published scientific articles he added:

"The fastest electronic tabulating machinery now available would require about three and a half months to scan a collection of 100 million pieces in answer to one request for information."

SOCIETY &amp; CLUBS

SHOCKING NEWS

PHILADELPHIA — (INS) — Here's the most "shocking" bit of news that Philadelphia has had for years. A huge steam-turbine electric generator will soon be installed in the Quaker City to generate 165,000,000 volts of electricity—enough to satisfy the needs of almost a half million people. Weighing more than a million pounds, the generator will be one of the largest ever built.

To Discuss Boycott
Of Russian Goods

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—(INS)—The Atlantic Coast District Council of the International Longshoremen's Association, AFL, meets tomorrow to discuss the current longshoremen's boycott of cargoes from Soviet or Soviet satellite countries.

President Truman has rebuked the longshoremen for their stand. He told a recent news conference that the government, not longshoremen, must make U. S. foreign policy.

So far, longshoremen in New York and Boston have declined to handle hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of crabmeat, Russian furs, Polish hams and similar cargoes from inside the Iron curtain, in protest against Communist aggression in Korea.

Following President Truman's criticism of the boycott, longshore leaders, including ILA President Joseph Ryan, stated they would be glad to follow government policy in the matter but don't know what the government's policy is. Tomorrow's meeting is expected to go thoroughly into the question.

Call For 70,000 Army Draftees In November

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—(INS)—The defense department announced today that the army has called for 70,000 draftees to be inducted into the service during November.

The figure is 20,000 higher than the 50,000 each to be inducted in September and October, and brings to 170,000 the total number of draftees formally requested so far.

A previous estimate by Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of the selective service system, was that only 50,000 would be called in November and another 35,000 in December.

The defense department did not say why the draft program has been stepped up.

All of the draftees will be inducted into the army. The defense department said that the navy and air force "do not plan to place any calls for November."

Observers assumed that the draft program was increased when President Truman last week set a goal of three million men as the combined strength of the armed forces.

The president's figure was 700,000 men higher than the two million three hundred thousand that was the defense department's previous goal.

David J. Thomas Funeral Conducted

Funeral services for David John Thomas, of Mt. Lebanon, of Pittsburgh an official of the P. & L. E. railroad, and relative of local residents, were held Monday at 2 p.m. from the E. B. Laughlin funeral home. Rev. James Thompson Orr of the Dormont Presbyterian church was in charge, and burial followed in the Jefferson Memorial cemetery, with military services at the grave. Pallbearers were officials of the P. & L. E. railroad and relatives.

Attending the funeral from here were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wallace, Wilmington avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Pearsall and son William; and Lincoln Thomas who attended from Los Angeles, Calif., and who is now spending several days in New Castle.

New Castle And Her Industrial Family

—New Castle News Photos

Bossert company, a member of the New Castle Industrial family, is out to help the military effort. Pictured here, William Ratvasky, R. D. 1, Edenburg, is operating a Coburn sleeve bore. The machine bores out the front axle for 2½ ton military trucks. Watching the operation is department foreman, Arthur Hemenway, of Schenley avenue.

(This is the sixth in a series of articles on New Castle industries. The series results from a survey recently conducted by the Greater New Castle Association.)

BOSSERT AXLE HOUSINGS CARRY NATION'S HEAVY LOADS

A GI truck roars across a war-torn road of Korea. A heavy-duty truck pulls its tremendous load of rock and dirt from a local excavation job. A fire engine races down a city street toward a burning building.

What do these widely different types of vehicles have in common? They all carry heavy and important loads. The bulk of their loads and road stresses are concentrated on their axles. Axles that must be built to take punishment and give service.

Axles Built To Take It
Bossert New Castle division specializes in the production of axle housings that take this kind of punishment. Axle housings produced here are sent to Bossert's parent company, the Timken-Detroit Axle company, where the moving parts are added. Timken-Detroit axles are used in practically any make of commercial vehicles you can name.

Next in production at the local plant are the recently developed square-shaped axle housings. The sturdy I-beam principle is used in their design. This prevents axle failure due to twisting and bending. Tests have proven that they are many times stronger than the ordinary tubular type of axle housing.

Bossert Came Here In 1949
Bossert is New Castle's newest large industrial citizen. It came here in March 1949. Dr. Wilbur E. Flannery, president of the Greater New Castle Association, says, "We welcome the Bossert company to our industrial family. In the short time it has been with us, it has established itself as an important part of our community. We wish the company continued success in its New Castle venture."

More than 600 New Castle people work at Bossert now. Only rear axle housings are being manufactured here at this time, but huge presses and forging machines are being installed to produce front axle housings. When this line is completed 400 additional people from the New Castle area will be employed in the plant.

Expect $3,000,000 Annual Payroll
Close to three million dollars a year will pour into New Castle from the Bossert company payroll when this plant completes its expansion program. Every business place in New Castle will feel the impact of this additional flow of wealth.

Bossert's New Castle officials who have been quick to enter into community activities are Edwin C. Schmidt, plant manager; Alfred G. Hawkins, assistant plant manager, and Arthur E. Goyit, superintendent.

Four Local Recruits In Naval Training

Four New Castle men, all seamen recruits, USN, are undergoing recruit training at the world's largest naval training center, Great Lakes, Ill.

The men are: William E. Benson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Benson of 1203 Cunningham avenue; Edward J. Guinaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Guinaugh of 204 Smithfield street; Andrew G. Kopsky of 409 Lyndal street, and James E. Flannery, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Flannery of 712 Etna street.

Greenville Farmers Winners Of Contest

HARRISBURG, Sept. 5.—(B. B. Beckstine and his son, Buddy, of Greenville, are Pennsylvania's best "green pasture" farmers.

The Beckstines, who operate a 210-acre farm near the Ohio state line, have been announced winners of the state-wide green pasture contest by the county production and marketing committee of Pennsylvania.

Second place winner was Robert H. Miller, Newville, Cumberland county, and third place went to Fairchild brothers of Berwick. Fourth place went to L. G. Vogt, Lewistown.

Pilgrimage Is Completed

Thirty Local Women Visit Many Shrines

A pilgrimage to four of the largest Catholic shrines in Canada covering a distance of 1,700 miles, was successfully completed this past week by 30 women.

Sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America, Court Teresa Irene, No. 231, the pilgrimage was in charge of Mrs. Marie J. Metz, chairman, who capably handled all of the arrangements and details of the entire trip.

The four shrines included St. Anne de Beaupre in Quebec, the Rosary shrine in Three Rivers, the St. Joseph's oratory in Montreal, Can., and the Father Baker's Home of Charity in Lackawanna, N. Y.

Niagara Falls was visited by the group en route to Canada Sunday, Aug. 27, the first day of the trip.

With overnights and stopovers in both Trenton, Ont., Can., and Montreal, the party continued to Quebec and arrived Tuesday afternoon at St. Anne.

Shrines Visited
The beautiful and impressive shrines were visited at St. Anne, and many of the pilgrims climbed the holy stairs (23 steps) on their knees only. The stairs are similar to the Scala Santa in Rome.

A tour in Quebec Wednesday afternoon included the Plains of Abraham, the Citadel, the beautiful Chateau de Frontenac and many other points of interest.

The pilgrimage continued to Trois Rivières (Three Rivers) on Thursday and an overnight was at the historical Chateau DeBlois—an original seigneurial manor built in 1828—and now 122 years old. The Rosary Shrine was visited at Three Rivers.

By Friday the party had reached Montreal, Can., where another stop was made. A three-hour tour of this city, which has 350 churches, and a two million population, was made Saturday morning. This tour included the St. Joseph's oratory, a view of Montreal from Mt. Royal lookout and the famous Notre Dame de Montreal and many other historical and interesting spots.

An honor was bestowed upon the pilgrimage from New Castle when they visited the St. Joseph's oratory. The group was the largest and the first to visit the huge basilica of St. Joseph's which is now in the progress of being built. There were 172 steps climbed in order to visit inside the huge dome.

On Saturday afternoon the pilgrimage left Montreal and returned to Trenton, Ont., Can. They attended holy mass in Trenton Sunday morning and immediately departed for Lackawanna, N. Y., where they visited Father Baker's Home of Charity and the national shrine of Our Lady of Victory. The pilgrimage returned home Sunday evening.

The pilgrimage proved such a success and new acquaintances made that plans were made for a get-together of the entire group to be held during the latter part of October at The Castleton. Mrs. Metz is again in charge of arrangements.

Although the local C. D. of A. sponsored the trip, many from out of town were included from New York, Elmira, Pa., Lorain, O., Cleveland, O., Ellwood City and New Castle.

Next year another pilgrimage will be held. Mrs. Marie J. Metz to have charge of the arrangements.

Congress May End Sessions In 2 Weeks

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—(INS)—Congress hopes today to clear two home-stretch hurdles—Communist controls and defense appropriations—within the next two weeks and then go home.

The House, which returns next Monday from a 10-day recess, already has outdistanced the Senate but it must approve the two bills and several conference reports before it can quit.

Congressional leaders are undecided on the manner of closing shop. They could: adjourn sine die until January; recess until a fixed date before January; or take three day recesses as the House is doing and keep a skeleton crew on hand.

Adjournment would automatically kill off all pending legislation. A recess, however, would permit consideration of currently unapproved bills.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa.—(INS)—The American Psychological Association will hold its 58th annual meeting at Pennsylvania State College in September. ## Former Resident Dies In Farrell

Stanislaus Ostrowski, aged 71 years, of 824 Lee avenue, Farrell, Pa., died in the Sharon General hospital, Sunday at 2:55 a.m., following an illness. Mr. Ostrowski was a former resident of this city.

He was born in Poland, May 8, 1879, and resided in Farrell, for 36 years coming from New Castle. He was employed at the American Sheet and Tin Plate company of Farrell, and retired in 1939. The deceased was a member of St. Adalbert's church in Farrell, Pa.

He leaves his wife, Wladyslawa Ostrowski; three daughters, Mrs. Jean Johnson, New York; Mrs. Stella Villeneuve, of Astoria, N. Y.; Mrs. Stephen Kachic, of Farrell, Pa.; two sons, Bernie, of Jamaica, N. Y., and Theodore, of Astoria, N. Y.

He also leaves a sister in Poland and eight grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral mass will be Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Adalbert's church. Previous services at 8:30 p.m., were in the Reinse funeral home, Farrell, Pa. Burial was in St. Elizabeth's cemetery.

There are from 14 to 18 square feet of skin on the average adult human body, it is estimated.

The first watches were made in Nuremberg, Germany, in 1477.

Turkey Seeks Admittance To Defense Alliance

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—(INS)—Western powers today debated Turkey's bid for admission to the North Atlantic defense alliance with fair indications it will be turned down.

The Turkish request to make a complete military union with the west admittedly posed delicate problems in Washington, London, Paris and other capitals.

Secretary of State Acheson meticulously has pointed out that the Turkish application for membership in the combined anti-Communist front has been received. He told newsmen it was receiving earnest consideration by the Washington government.

Acheson said, however, that final decision would have to be made in New York when the Atlantic pact foreign ministers meet next week.

Under terms of the treaty, a new member may be taken in only by unanimous vote of the 11 original subscribing nations.

A million dollars in the old United States gold dollars weighs about 3,686.5 pounds.

PANELLA WINS ORANGE CRATE DERBY RACE FOR SECOND TIME

enue, and Patsy Natale, Rr. 304 East Home street, with Natale getting the nod by inches.

David Fitzgerald, 224 Fairmont avenue, posted the fastest time of the day over the 750-foot track, in his first heat—23.5 seconds.

Panela drew a bye in the first round, defeated Jim Palmer in the second, Mike Thomas in the third, Patsy Natale in the semi-final and John Bockius in the final. The final race with Bockius was the closest for Panela, with only several feet between the two cars.

Panela and Bockius were awarded trophies by D. J. Angeloni, of Butler, district governor of Optimist International. Immediately following the races, other awards will be made Wednesday evening at The Castleton hotel when all of the entries will be the guests of the New Castle Optimist club.

Rev. A. E. Simon gave the invocation and Mayor John Haven gave the welcome address to officially open the races.

Lawrence county volunteer firemen acted as police. The city recreation department stretched rope on both sides of the street and the firemen kept the spectators behind the ropes, so that the racers would have a clear path.

Parade Precedes
A parade of derby drivers and officials from the American Legion Home to the derby downs on Taylor street preceded the races. The Neshannock township volunteer fire department sponsored an old-time fire engine, driven and manned by firemen dressed as clowns, in the parade. A band of American Legion volunteers provided music for the parade and for the remainder of the morning.

The Neshannock firemen also sponsored a horse on wheels that gave a demonstration on how to win the race.

Judges for the event were Jack Gerson, Q. K. Craft and George Winter, Jr.

Al Francis and Otto Pearsall handled the speakers. The local Navy Electronic unit had walkie-talkies at both ends to relay messages from the finish line to the starting line.

Don Rae was general chairman of the 1950 derby for the Optimist club. Club members helped out at the starting and finishing lines.

Northern Part Of Florida Hit By Hurricane

(BULLETIN)
MIAMI, Sept. 5.—(INS)—A gulf hurricane seething with winds up to 125 miles an hour struck the Suwannee river area of northern Florida today and moved slowly northeastward on a course that would take it diagonally across the state.

The Miami Weather Bureau reported in a 9 a. m. EST bulletin that the center of the storm swept inland on the Florida west coast just south of Cedar Keys between 8 and 8:30 a. m. EST and continued on a northeastward path.

Cedar keys reported winds of 75 to 80 miles an hour shortly before the hurricane center struck the shore, but has not been heard from since that time.

The present course of the gulf storm would send it sweeping over the inland cities of Ocala and Gainesville and into the Atlantic between Jacksonville and St. Augustine by nightfall.

Winds of hurricane force hampered a 100-mile stretch of sparsely populated gulf coastline and gales spread outward over a large part of north Florida.

Full hurricane precautions were ordered for most of northern Florida and for coastal areas from Daytona Beach to Savannah, Ga. The weather bureau warned of "hurricane winds and high tides" on the east coast.

The 1950 census for the first time credited college students to the town in which their alma mater stood.

Allied Planes Support Ground Forces In Korea

TOKYO, Sept. 5.—(INS)—Allied warplanes today roared into the 71st consecutive day of their air onslaught against the North Korean invaders, with emphasis again on intense support of ground forces.

Headquarters said action yesterday was highlighted by "massed tactical support" for ground forces in the vital Pohang sector. More than 160 individual flights were staged in that area.

F-80s and F-51s "poured a steady stream of rocket and machinegun fire into North Korean troops and armored vehicles forcing their way down eastern valleys toward the Pusan-Taegu rail link."

Three American fighter planes were lost during the day—two to Communist ground fire.

One F-51 was hit by flak near Pohang. The pilot bailed out and was rescued unhurt by helicopter. A second F-51 was downed in the same area, but headquarters said "no report is available" on the pilot's fate.

An F-80 pilot was listed as missing in action after he was forced down west of Seoul.

Fifth Air force planes flew almost 550 sorties and B-29 superfortresses and navy and marine fighters swelled the total.

Close support also was given ground forces on the southern front, where the air action was declared to have caused "many casualties of Communist foot troops."

B-29s destroyed two railroad bridges along Communist supply routes and damaged seven others. The superforts and B-29s hit marshalling yards at seven cities and other communications targets.

At least 26 tanks were listed as knocked out or damaged during Monday.

Revival Services At Nazarene Church

A series of revival meetings are in progress at the Church of the Nazarene, West Falls at Beaver streets where services are in progress at 7:30 o'clock nightly.

The series which will continue until September 17, is being conducted by Rev. Mason Lee, evangelist and Professor Paul Qualls, song evangelist. Special music is being presented at each service. Rev. George Sarber, pastor is chairman of the services.

A new U. S. jet bomber has been developed which can change the angle of its wings while in flight.

Taft Opposes Preventive War

AKRON, O., Sept. 5.—(INS)—Ohio Senator Robert A. Taft is opposed to a "preventive" war.

Sen. Taft voiced this opinion in Akron in an address to the closing session of the national convention of the Polish Legion of American Veterans.

"I don't often agree with Secretary Acheson," said the Senator, "but I agree with him on that principle."

Ohio's senior Senator said that there may be no war with Russia. "No other course is as likely to dissuade Russia as an adequate force to oppose it," Taft said, but added, however, that Russia traditionally attacks "a soft spot. We don't want to be that soft spot."

Taft also declared himself in favor of the Communist control bill which already has passed the House.

"There should be no remnant left of Communist influence in the government," he stated. "We are entitled to know who the Communists are."

This Little Piggy Did Not End Up In Market

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 5.—(INS)—Police, stockyards workers and volunteers were scouring Pittsburgh today for a piggy that didn't want to go to market.

The 350-pound animal escaped early today from a truckload of pigs being unloaded at a packing house.

Helicopters Prove Worth In War Zone

By JOHN RICH
(U. S. S. War Correspondent)

PUSAN, KOREA, Sept. 5.—Helicopters proved their worth today if there were any doubters.

An Army helicopter rescued a Mustang behind enemy lines just as a gun-waving North Korean officer rushed toward the downed flyer.

A Marine helicopter picked up a Marine Corsair pilot near friendly lines three minutes after his parachute dropped him to earth.

then whisked him to a rear command post.

Sunday another 'copter tried to rescue a crash-landed Mustang pilot who apparently took to the hills to try to make his own way back.

Two helicopters were credited with saving 18 GI lives Monday by rushing the wounded men back to rear areas for medical care by specialists.

Rescues Made

Reading from top to bottom on these incidents: Army First Lt. Paul Van Boven of San Mateo, Cal., working his helicopter in the Pohang sector, went out to help a pilot of a Mustang down in enemy territory by small arms fire.

Lt. Van Boven and a medical man, Cpl. John Fuentz of Kansas City, Kans., rescued First Lt. Robert B. Wayne of (197 Stewart Ave.)

Garden City, N. Y., who parachuted from his crippled Mustang behind enemy lines above Pohang.

Four Mustangs covered Van Boven as he dropped his slow, clumsy looking 'copter to the ground. The Mustangs did a good job but small arms fire whizzed near Van Boven.

Another pilot in Wayne's Mustang group, First Lt. Ray White of Austin, Tex., took care of a North Korean officer advancing on Wayne with gun in hand.

Presidential special assistant Maj. Gen. Frank Lowe of the air observation branch radioed Van Boven "that was the finest example of a rescue operation I have ever seen."

The strength of the average horse is equal to that of five men.

Coronary thrombosis (formation of a blood clot in the coronary artery) claims 200,000 American lives a year.

Delicate instruments last up to 40 per cent longer in jet planes than in the conventional motor type due to reduced vibration.

New Castle Senators Open Series Playoff At Butler Tonight

Senators Finish In Fourth Place; Frank Wagner Will Pitch Tonight

The New Castle Senators finished in fourth place in the hectic Middle-Atlantic 1950 pennant race, that closed yesterday. Tonight the spunky young Senators will start a five-game series playoff at Butler at 8 o'clock with the second-place Butler Tigers in the elimination for the league championship, under the Shauhnnessy system.

Frank Wagner Will Pitch
Manager Chuck Cronin has nominated the veteran Frank Wagner (11-7) to pitch the opener at Butler Wednesday evening. Paul Foytack will probably be the Butler flinger tonight. Foytack's record is (18-6).

New Castle and Butler will play the third game of their series at Flaherty Field Thursday evening. Game time will be 8:00 o'clock. The fourth game if necessary will be played at New Castle Friday, and if a fifth game is necessary it will be decided by a toss of the coin where it shall be played.

Foytack defeated Wagner in a mound duel at Butler last Thursday 4 to 3, in a thriller, tonight's game should be a humdinger.

Famiglietti And Bilo Due Back
New Castle over the six-game weekend span won two and lost four, defeating Butler 1 to 0 and ending the season by trimming Oil City last night 11-4.

Tommy Famiglietti and Gene Bilo will rejoin the Senators for the series tonight, the former being called home to New York by the illness of his wife and the latter missing the twin-bill yesterday being bedded with a bad cold.

The Senators are entering the series tonight with confidence and the will to win. The New Castle-Butler series for the year stands at eight for New Castle and nine for Butler. It is bound to be a cat-and-dog-fight for the playoff series.

Erie and New Castle Close

Erie just nosed the Senators out of third place by a finish of 63 wins and 52 defeats, for a percentage of .548, to New Castle's 64 wins and 54 defeats, for a percentage of .542, and a difference in games back of one-half. Butler finished 67-40 with a percentage of .578 four games back, and Erie was 7 1/2 games off the pace, New Castle 8. Oil City, winning the pennant, had 70 wins and 44 defeats for a percentage of .614.

Youngstown wound up in fifth place 18 games off the top, and Niagara Falls in sixth place 23 1/2 games behind. Johnstown in last place 25 games behind.

Oil City won the 1950 pennant here Sunday afternoon in the first game of a twin-bill, 9-7 in 10 innings, a heart-breaker for the Senators, with Ben Rossman the loser after relieving in the ninth inning. But Saturday night at Butler, Rossman was master with a swell four-hitter 1-0 win over the Tigers.

Smolko Hits Two Homers

The Senators uncovered a slugger over the holiday in the veteran Joe Smolko, the pitcher slamming two homers, one Sunday and one Monday for his sixth of the year, two since joining New Castle and four with Johnstown. Churchill hurled a fine six-hitter Sunday, but lost as his mates failed to hit behind him, getting only three hits off young Dick Friel.

Young Johnny Lesko hurried his first win in his first start last night, allowing the Oilers 11 hits but kept them scattered. Young Merle Fredericks caught a fine game last night.

Hank A.C. Edges Keystone A.C., 6-5

Hank A. C. softball team nosed out the Keystone A. C. 6-5 Sunday afternoon at Lehigh field. Quinto, who relieved Maggie, received credit for the win. Dom Dimuccio was the loser.

Ferrari and Padula paced Hanks with two hits apiece. Barbatto and Sheldon had three apiece for Keystone.

Maureen Riley Woman Champ At Country Club

Maureen Riley became the woman's champion out at the New Castle Country club yesterday by defeating her sister, Kathleen, 2 up.

Maureen was 3 down at the end of 6 but won 7, 8 and 9 to draw even with her older sister. The younger Riley then won 16 and 18 to gain her victory.

Weekly Sweepstakes

Saturday's event of the weekly sweepstakes was match play against par. Dr. Dave Updegraff, S. E. Wray and Grover Washabaugh tied for first with Sid Lucas coming in second.

Sting McKee won Sunday's calculation with E. C. Jarrett coming in second and Sid Lucas third. Bob Platt, Frank Sowersby, H. Sadler and Buzz Allen comprised the winning best ball foursome on Labor Day. Tom Blair had the longest drive on No. 9, Fran Gould was closest to No. 2 pin, Bob Garland had 27 putts to win that contest with Tom Blair coming in second.

Tennis Finals

In the finals of the club tennis tournament Andy Johnson defeated Chauncey Dean to become singles champion. Set scores were 4-6, 6-3, 6-4 and 7-5.

Dean and John Shastid teamed up in the doubles and bested Johnson and Charlie Coburn in straight sets, 6-1, 6-2 and 8-6.

Schneider Wins Sylvan Heights Championship

John Schneider won the Sylvan Heights City-County Golf Championship Sunday by defeating Stan Bukowski 6 and 5 at Sylvan Heights Golf Course.

In winning the championship Schneider defeated Frank C. Summers, Peter N. Dimeco and Rags Gennock. Bukowski had defeated Harry Tuscano, Stan Kardish and Vic Rosetta.

Schneider shot 37-35-33 for the 27 complete holes played in Sunday's match. Bukowski had 34-40-36 to ride the 27 holes.

John has been one of the city's leading golfers for the past 10 years. Stan won the Sylvan Heights title twice, defeating Martin Segedi in 1942 and Mike Lombardo in 1946. Bukowski won the Castle Hills championship earlier in the year.

Giants Lose Catcher To Army September 18

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—(INS)—Sam Calderone, reserve catcher of the New York Giants, became the first major leaguer to be drafted in the present emergency when he was ordered today to report for military service on Sept. 18.

"I never felt so many boxing gloves in my life," Chip said following the fight. Johnny Papke, former Cleveland middleweight, now a tutor of boxers, told Here and There how Harry Greb came to use a "wind-mill" and unorthodox style of punching. Greb said he adopted the "swing and hit 'em anywhere" style in the hope of landing somewhere, when his opponent was on his blind eye-side. "It worked well," Papke commented. "All old-timers remember Red Mason, Pittsburgh's colorful manager of Greb, and a score who preceded the ex-middleweight champion. One night he had a tyro boxing in McKeesport. "Use your head!" yelled Mason. His fighter did. He butted his opponent repeatedly. "How would one like to sustain a severe gash in his tongue, then without anaesthetic have a surgeon stitch the wound? This is what happened to George Chip, former middleweight champion. He was training for a battle with Sailor Petrosky, if recollection serves correctly, when a blow in training sunk his teeth into his tongue. A surgeon was called. Another example of unadvised courage was witnessed the night Tom McMahon, the heavyweight, fought Dick Gilbert in the Opera house. He went into the ring with his back littered with boils. Dick slammed him often on the back and when he couldn't slam him, he rubbed his gloves over the boils, causing 'em to break. As they came out for the last round, McMahon gazed at Here and There and shook his head in agony. Gilbert won the award, but Chip paid off for McMahon. He gave Dick a lacing in a bout two weeks later in the Opera house.

HERE and THERE IN SPORTS LAND

Tales Of Yesteryear's Fistmen
DURING A World War I exhibition here Andy Fair was in Tony Ross' corner. He used two bottles—one filled with water, and the other filled with beer. During rest periods between the first few rounds he gave the water bottle to Ross who rinsed his mouth. During the last period he handed Tony the bottle of beer. After Tony began gulping down the beer, Fair seized it and poured the contents over Tony's head, then ducked out of the Opera house. Ross hunted for him a week to give him a "dressing down" but Andy was sufficiently wise to keep out of Tony's path. . . . Remember when Battling Terry was knocked down in the ring and he was somewhat groggy he would punch his head against the floor. "I did that to make the blood flow faster back into my head," the Battler explains. . . . Recalling that after Joe Chip knocked out Harry Greb, Greb gave Chip an artistic "going-over," "I never felt so many boxing gloves in my life." Chip said following the fight. Johnny Papke, former Cleveland middleweight, now a tutor of boxers, told Here and There how Harry Greb came to use a "wind-mill" and unorthodox style of punching. Greb said he adopted the "swing and hit 'em anywhere" style in the hope of landing somewhere, when his opponent was on his blind eye-side. "It worked well," Papke commented. "All old-timers remember Red Mason, Pittsburgh's colorful manager of Greb, and a score who preceded the ex-middleweight champion. One night he had a tyro boxing in McKeesport. He gave Dick a lacing in a bout two weeks later in the Opera house.

FOUR DECADES AGO It was not uncommon for New Castle fighters to go 20 rounds, which were grinds compared to the three, six, eight and ten rounds of today. Bat Terry went the 20 rounds against Joe Getz at Johnstown, and against Joe Kid Kansas at Erie. Tommy Jones, a prominent lightweight of those days, went the 15-round route several times at Dayton, it always being agreed between the fighters that "if we are both on our feet at the end of the 15 rounds it will be a draw." Among opponents Tommy boxed in long distance affairs was Young Fisher, a tough, husky of Rochester, N. Y. Their fights were always akin to legalized "manslaughter." . . . Jimmie Dime, unfortunately was deaf, and later became crippled due to an auto accident. However, before he was crippled, he undertook to teach Battling Mathieson from where, Here and There doesn't recall. Jimmie was a severe task-master and now and then exploded profanely. After he had ex-coriated Mathieson with profanity, Dime gave the Battler a rest. Tom McMahon whispered to Mathieson: "Tell him what you think of him. He's deaf and can't hear you anyway." Training was resumed and again Dime profaned Mathieson. Mathieson exploded a lot of cuss words at Dime. However, he made the mistake of saying it into Dime's good ear. Dime stepped from behind the big bag, hit Mathieson on the chin and knocked him out. Mathieson quit the stable and left town. . . . Al Lippe, manager of former Featherweight Champion Abe Attel brought fights to the Jolly bowl. "What do you think of Carnera?" he was asked. "He'll 'go' alright, if they can teach him to use his big feet," said Al. His words came true. Carnera made a lot of money as a fighter but it is alleged his handlers got it all. He is now en route to a second fortune in the wrestling game. He wrestled here and is to appear soon in Pittsburgh.

'Cincy' Wins 4-3, All-Stars Out Of Tournament

Cincinnati Ties Score In Ninth, Wins In Eleventh

By ED O'NEIL

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS
DAYTON, Sept. 4.—After sitting out four days of rain New Castle All-Stars, entry in the NABF Junior tournament here, bowed out Labor Day, losing to Cincinnati 4-3 in 11 innings.

Rich Liposky, who hurled one victory in the tournament was the loser, when Cincinnati squeezed across a run in the top of the eleventh. New Castle led 3-2 going into the ninth when Cincinnati tied the count.

In the first two tournament games, New Castle's entry defeated Louisville 10-2, and Atlanta, 2-0. However, Detroit vanquished New Castle 3-0, and Cincinnati, last year's tourney champions, eliminated New Castle from the tourney, 4-3.

Only ten teams are left in the tournament. The finals will be played tonight. If Altoona whips Olean, they'll draw for opponents. The Cincinnati-New Castle box score:

Phillies Lose Twin-Bill; Tigers - Yanks Break Even

By JOHN BARRINGTON (International News Service Writer)

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The Boston Braves and New York Giants are interjecting a note of excitement into the latter days of the National League pennant race, simply because they refuse to roll over and play dead.

Leo Durocher's Giants, who have been making a tremendous stretch drive for more than a month, reached new heights yesterday when Jim Hearn, the bargain-basement acquisition from the St. Louis Cardinals, and bullpen fugitive Sal Maglie whitewashed the league-leading Philadelphia Phils twice, 2 to 0 and 9 to 0.

Braves Win Two
Meanwhile, the Braves humbled Brooklyn twice, 11 to 4 and 3 to 2. The St. Louis Cardinals sank deeper into fifth place when they dropped a double header to Cincinnati, 5 to 4 and 8 to 4.

And the cellar-dwelling Pittsburgh Pirates, nurturing a five-game winning streak, belted the Chicago Cubs twice, 5 to 3 and 3 to 0. Rookie Bill Macdonald pitched

Curt Simmons
Inducted TodayStar Hurler May
Pitch Few More

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 5. — (INS) — Curt Simmons, southpaw pitching star of the Philadelphia Phillies, will be inducted into federal service today as a member of the Pennsylvania State Guard's 28th Infantry Division.

The 21-year-old hurler from Egypt, Pa., who cost the Phillies 65,000 when he signed four years ago, is the first major leaguer to be called to military duty.

Under present orders, the 28th is scheduled to report to Camp Atterbury, Ind., on or before September 15. However, Phillies officials said Simmons has received no definite orders and may be able to take a few more turns on the mound.

Simmons has won 17 games and lost 8.

Bombers Win Two
In Warren Tourney

DeCarbo Bombers softball team won two games in the Warren, O., tournament over the weekend.

Saturday night the Bombers defeated the Carpo-Russ team of Sharon 1-0 in nine innings. Tony Tuscano went all the way for the Bombers and held the losers to two hits. DeSantis also held the Bombers to two hits, with Sam DeLillo getting both.

Monday the Bombers took the Farrell Slavonian Home 8-4. Tuscano was the winning pitcher again. Norm Conti featured the game with three hits.

Wednesday night at 8 o'clock the Bombers will meet Jones-Monaca of Farrell in a semi-final game. It is a double-elimination tournament.

City All-Stars
Trim 'NC' Indies

New Castle All-Stars (Seniors) defeated the New Castle Indies nine to four, Sunday afternoon at Montgomery field. Cook allowed the Indies six hits. Snow and Watters allowed 19. Cook and Janiccone, All-Stars got triples. Cook also poled a double.

Pulaski-Vets
Play Tonight

Pulaski will meet No. 5 Vets tonight at No. 5 Mine in the first game of their seven-game series for the North County league championship.

The teams played to a tie in their first attempt of the series and were rained out after three innings in the second attempt.

Vets won the regular season pennant and defeated New Wilmington in the first round of the playoffs. Pulaski finished fourth during the regular season and took Volant in the first round of the playoffs.

Ladies City Tenpin
League Will Start

Laffoon-Alexander

Playoff For Title

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 5. — (INS) — Ky Laffoon and Skip Alexander faced an 18-hole playoff this afternoon to determine the winner of the $15,000 Empire State Golf Tournament.

Laffoon and Alexander finished in a first place tie yesterday with 72-hole cards of 279, five under par. Alexander posted a course-record 66 and a 70 to overhaul Laffoon, the early leader, who took a 68-72 for the last 36 holes.

U. S. WOMEN LEAD
BUFFALO, Sept. 5. — (INS) — Women golf stars of the United States and the British Isles began Curtis Cup singles play today at Buffalo with the U. S. favored to continue its 18-year monopoly of the cup.

The U. S. grabbed a 2-to-1 lead in foursome play yesterday. Six singles matches, each worth one point, conclude the series today.

Columbus, O., State Education Director Clyde Hissong, who claims television wrestling shows "demonstrate dishonesty," today has an offer to put on tight and see just how much of a take the groaners are. Al Haft, Columbus wrestling promoter, last night offered Hissong, Ohio's chief movie censor, his choice of 15 wrestlers to accommodate him in a demonstration.

Another Raise In Employment Is Perdicted

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5—(INS)—Government economists said today the rearmament program probably will boost employment by another million and push industrial production up three per cent before the New Year.

Employment, estimated at 62,367,000 in August, is now at a record high and industrial output is running at the wartime 1945 level.

The Federal Reserve Board estimated that production totaled 204 per cent of the 1935-39 average and officials said they believe the index may move to 210 by New Year's day.

A census bureau report attributed a 1,153,000 increase in August employment to early effects of the Korean war and the general good health of the nation's economy.

Pace Accelerated

Commerce Secretary Sawyer pointed out that "the economy was gradually moving toward full employment before the Korean crisis."

He added that "with increasing defense preparations, it may be expected that this trend will continue at an accelerated pace."

Last month, unemployment totaled 2,500,000. Many of the jobless will join the labor force in coming months as defense plans speed into operation and the armed forces begin calling employed civilians to active military duty.

JONES DROP

NEW YORK—(INS)—The Jones family is slipping. A few years ago, there were almost as many Joneses as there are Smiths. But according to a survey the Joneses have dropped numerically from second to sixth place. The survey revealed that the Smiths still are way out ahead with four and a half million Americans entitled to social security benefits answering to that name.

RENOVATE LAWN IN LATE SUMMER

With a good summer and fall lawn program much of the turf work about the home ground will be done for the whole year.

Late summer is the best time to kill weeds, seed bare spots or for a complete lawn renovation. A good lawn requires a long-time program.

Where turf is thin and weeds abound a thorough clean-up may be in order. In some instances, sodium arsenite is used to take out certain weeds remaining after a treatment with 2,4-D. Seeding when necessary may follow the sodium arsenite treatment immediately, but should follow 2,4-D treatments by not less than four weeks.

September is the best time to seed lawns for renovations or new stands. Weather conditions are favorable, particularly for root development which is essential to good turf.

For a renovation job, mix well one bushel of screened soil, 10 pounds of ground limestone, five pounds of complete fertilizer and one pound of super. This mixture broadcast evenly is enough to cover 1,000 square feet of lawn where the turf is thin. Cover bare spots with one-quarter inch of the material.

Lime is essential for grass development, and if needed, may be applied in the form of ground limestone, 50 pounds per 1,000 square feet. To strengthen the turf for winter, fertilize in late August or early September using 15 to 25 pounds a complete fertilizer, such as 4-12-4, 4-12-6 or 5-10-5 per 1,000 square feet.

Continue to mow the lawn as the grass grows, but not too short. Three inches of standing grass for winter clover are desirable. Heavy accumulations of leaves tend to mat down and unless removed may smother out the grass by spring.

SMALL EGGS DIFFICULT TO GRADE BY SIGHT

Egg producers develop a talent to grade eggs by sight into the medium and large sizes. It is more difficult to grade eggs into the proper weights that fall into the medium, pullet or pee wee classes. Egg scales or grading machines are needed for these smaller eggs. Eggs weighing 18 to 20 ounces per dozen, are pullet size. If they do not weigh 18 ounces per dozen, they belong in the pee-wee class. Those weighing 21 to 23 ounces inclusive belong in the medium class.

Many of the small-sized eggs are produced on range when pullets start to lay. Many soiled eggs on range can be prevented by providing nests on range some distance from the range shelters. Have the nests on a good sod. During wet weather the pullets will walk through the grass to get to the nests. The wet grass cleans their feet and their eggs stay clean.

"I WANT TO TELL THIS TO WOMEN IN THEIR 40's"

"Any woman between the ages of 38 and 52 should be interested in my experience. I was going through functional change of life and found myself terribly embarrassed from hot flashes, and I felt so nervous, easily upset because of this.

"What really shocked me was when I overheard my husband explaining my shortcomings behind my back. He said, 'Don't mind Louise—she's going through change of life.' That made up my mind. I had heard how effective Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was for relieving such symptoms, and I decided then and there to try it. Thank heavens I did.

"I find Pinkham's Compound simply marvelous to relieve embarrassing symptoms due to this cause. In fact I now take Lydia Pinkham's Compound regularly to help build up resistance against hot flushes, tense emotions, flighty, nervous, tired feelings—due to this cause. I wish anyone when troubled this way would try this great medicine." F. S. Pinkham's Compound tastes swell in a little fruit juice or plain water. A wonderfully effective medicine made especially for women.

Around Hollywood

By JAMES PADGITT
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 5—(INS)—Jeff Chandler, whose fan mail has soared since his appearance as an Indian Chief in "Broken Arrow," was singing the blues on a "quickie" trip to Hollywood from the "Bird of Paradise" location in Hawaii.

The rugged actor complained of both a scratchy chest and sore feet. The Twentieth-Century Fox film company is shooting that perennial spectacle, complete with erupting volcano and torrid native love, on the island of Hawaii and Kauai.

Jeff Native Chief

Jeff portrays a native chief and to look the part he must regularly have his chest shaved and do a hula or two in his barefeet—hence the scratchy chest and sore feet.

"Hollywood is a wonderful place," the actor declares. "They hire you because they like your voice, then shave your chest and make you do a hula."

Jeff, who is 6 feet 4 with a 210-pound physique alternately described as "lumbering" and "athletic," said that the "Bird of Paradise" role has been a nightmare.

"For years I have prided myself in the fact that I am not the dancing type. I live in constant fear of stepping on my partners and breaking their feet."

"In 'Bird of Paradise' I have to dance, sort of a barefoot dance and a lot of hip wiggling. It looks swell when the girls do it, but I feel like a fool."

Good Instructor?

Th studio has the world's most famous exponent of ancient polynesian dances, Iolane Luahine, instructing Jeff in the art. He has a beautiful Polynesian girl as a partener, Mary Anne Ventura, who plays his pride in the picture.

Chandler got his start in pictures because the studio bigwigs liked his voice on radio.

"So what happens?" laments the actor. "They tell me to shake a hip."

"I step on Miss Luahine. I step on Miss Ventura. When they zig, I zag. We collide. The gourd and shark skin drums beat at a frenzied pace. My feet get sore. We dance again and dance. Other native dancers crowd me, push me. I have to keep step or the wole foot-stomping herd walks over me."

Jeff says that Debra Paget, who wears 18 sarongs and supplies the love interest in the film, applauds to make him feel good and the director calls him "twinkletoes."

Jeff managed to spend 24 hours in Hollywood before he was called back to the "Paradise" company—for more barefoot dancing.

The first woman magazine publisher in the United States was Ann Stephens, who published the "Portland Magazine" from 1835-37.

Four Thousand Farmers Use Housing Program

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5—(INS)—The Agriculture Department reports that 4,000 farmers took advantage of the new farm housing program during the first year of its existence.

The department's Farmers Home Administration made a total of 18 million dollars in loans to farmers who could find no other way to build or repair houses and other farm buildings during the year.

The FHA underwrote almost 12 million dollars worth of new homes on 2,167 farms. The average cost of those dwellings was $5,373. Almost two thousand farmers used loans to make major farm building repairs. Others used loans to build or repair barns and other buildings.
